MAJCZEK TELLS $5,000 'GIFT' TO ILL. LEGISLATOR

'TO YOU WE THROW THE TORCH...'

Ashes are all that remain of Mohandas K. Gandhi's body...but flame of devotion to India's cause isn't extinguished by assassin's bullets. Disregarding fire enveloping fallen leader, disciple scoops ashes from funeral pyre in New Delhi to treasure as hallowed relic. An unflinching advocate of non-violence in fight for freedom, 78-year-old Gandhi was slain as he walked to prayer...and in final testimonial of his faith he put hand to face in sign of forgiveness to assassin.

Plot to murder Nehru, others in India bared

(SUN and TIMES Wire Services)

New Delhi, Feb. 1.—A plot to murder Prime Minister Nehru and other Indian officials was revealed today while the ashes of Mohandas K. Gandhi, himself a victim of the assassins, were consigned to holy Hindu rivers.

But while the police and secret service moved against extremist Hindu conspirators, there were indications that Gandhi, by his martyrdom, had set trends in motion to give India the peace he so deeply desired.

Police searched in New Delhi and other great cities for extremist leaders, believing that the assassination of Gandhi was only the first move in a plot to liquidate all opponents of the extremist demand for Hindu rule of the entire subcontinent.

Turbulent mobs of Hindus, their sorrow over the death of Gandhi turned to rage, surged party, in a resolution decrying organizations responsible for political assassinations, mentioned no names. This was taken as a gesture of peace, directed at the Moslems.

Sardar Vallabhai Patel, Indian home minister, said he was a target in the plot, along with Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and Education Minister Maulana Abul Kalam Azad.

Another high government official said the plot included Gandhi's assassination, and predicted immediate political reverberations.

Patel said part of Gandhi's ashes will be cast into the Jumna River at 9 a.m. tomorrow, but some of his bones will be scattered later into other streams sacred to the Hindus, as a symbol of love between Gandhi and his people.

Blamed for the murder was the militant Hindu Mahasaba party. Police said Narayan Vinayak Godse, held as the assassin, was a member.

Involved in the plot also, according to police, is the Rashtriya Sewak Sangha Extremist organization to which Godse belonged.

Agents active

A group of secret service agents who have been posing as members of the Hindu militant Mahratta sect, of which Godse was an adherent, arrived by plane today from Poona, his home town, to join in questioning him.

Rioting had now broken out here, in Bombay, in Kolahpur, in Bezwada and Miraj.

Edison plans rate cut fight

By Thomas Drennan

The Commonwealth Edison Co. is preparing for a City Council fight to preserve its rate schedule, it was learned yesterday.

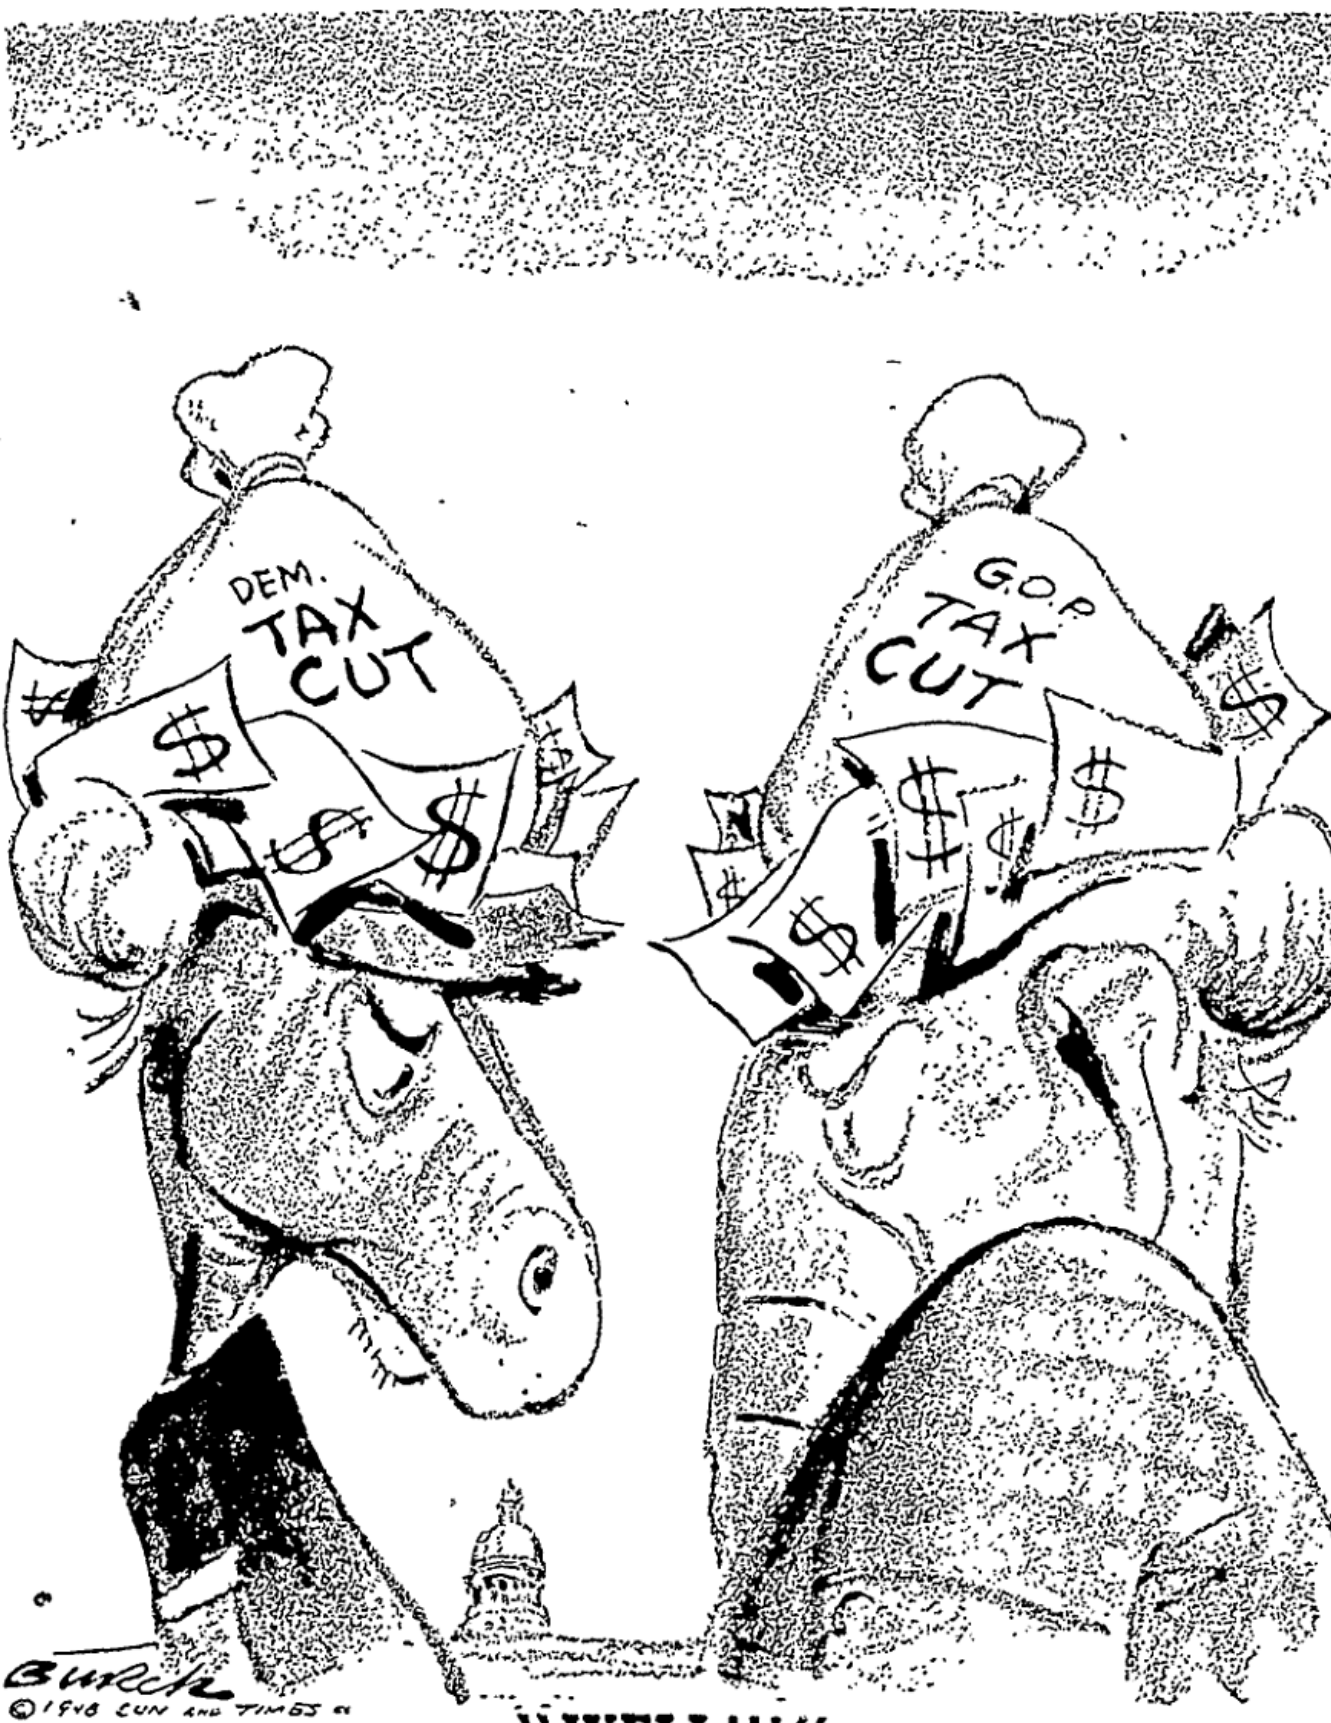

Edison representatives are ready to battle to the finish the city's proposal to force yearly adjustments in their figures. Present Edison rates average about $3 per month for residential users. The city proposal would cut 30 cents from each monthly bill based on 1946 figures.

Meanwhile, city representatives, headed by Ald. Clarence P. Wagner (14th), utilities committee chairman, will resume talks with Francis X. Bush, Edison attorney, today.

Wagner said they would "stand pat" on the original city offer limiting Edison's return to 4.59 per cent it would result in a 10 per cent cut on the 1946 operating figures.

City acts to solve oil hardship with certificate plan

Chicago acted today to solve its fuel oil crisis amid demands in Washington for further cuts in oil exports.

Robert E. Coburn, chairman of Mayor Kennelly's emergency committee, said his group had "a workable plan."

Hardship cases were expected to be given certificates Wednesday or Thursday entitling them to buy oil—probably 50 gallons—from any distributor.

The committee has offices at 69 W. Washington St. formerly occupied by the Chicago Title & Trust Co.

'Pressure' started

Congressional "pressure" to force sharper export restrictions was led by Chairman Wolverton (R-N.J.) of the House Commerce Committee. The government previously announced an 18½ per cent cut in gas and oil shipments.

In Detroit, Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. cut off all of its industrial users "until further notice."

"The worst gas shortage" in Detroit's history already had made idle more than 200,000 workers.

Snow delays oil

"There are 60,000 gallons of oil in Illinois that we can't get because of a snow storm," said Henry Fink, Consolidated president.

Meanwhile, 30 barges carrying 3,000,000 gallons of oil to

Moscow accuses U. S. fliers

LONDON, Monday, Feb. 2 (AP) The Soviet Union has filed a blunt protest note with the United States requesting that American bombers cease "importunate inspection" of Russian shipping in Japanese waters, the Moscow radio said today.

The note charged that Flying Fortresses have been circling low and sometimes diving on Soviet ships in the Sea of Japan and the Yellow Sea in "infringements upon the freedom of merchant shipping."

The broadcast said that the Soviet ministry of foreign affairs, headed by V.M. Molotov, sent the note to U.S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith Friday demanding that the United States "issue the necessary instructions...not to permit similar infringements in the future."

Crews resentful

The radio, quoting a dispatch by Tass, Soviet news agency, said Russia complained that the actions of American aircraft had evoked "legitimate resentment on the part of the crews and passengers of Soviet steamers."

These flights, the broadcast said, are "rude attempts of the American authorities at establishing their control of shipping in the Yellow Sea and the Sea of Japan, far beyond their territorial waters."

U. S. awaits note

Washington, Feb. 1 (UP)—A State Department official said tonight this country would make no comment on Russian charges until the formal Russian protest is received here.

Majczek tells $5,000 'gift' to legislator

By James McGuire

Copyright 1948, SUN and TIMES Co.

The SUN and TIMES yesterday notified the State's Attorney's office that Joe Majczek had made a statement in which he said he paid a Chicago politician $5,000 out of the $24,000 he received from the state for 12 years of false imprisonment.

Majczek said he handed the money secretly, in $50 and $100 bills, to State Rep. Ragnar G. Nelson, 11320 S. Edbrooke Ave.

Rep. Nelson, a Republican ward leader and a legislator since 1942, denied receiving any money from Majczek, but refused to take a lie detector test or make a statement in writing.

After a long and careful investigation, The SUN and TIMES felt the matter was serious enough to bring it to the attention of public officials.

Majczek said Nelson first asked him for money on the night of last June 22, four days after the Illinois Senate had passed a bill to pay the $24,000. The bill had passed the House previously--under Rep. Nelson's sponsorship. The money was paid, he said, July 7.

At the time of this request, according to Majczek's statement, the bill was awaiting Gov. Green's signature in Springfield.

In telling of the experience, Majczek said Rep. Nelson told him in a South Side tavern:

"This is going to cost you $5,000."

Majczek said he paid the money to Rep. Nelson in the legislator's Packard auto on a South Side street.

The $24,000 was awarded to Majczek for his unjust conviction in the 1932 murder of Policeman William D. Lundy. Reporters for this newspaper proved Joe innocent, after months of investigation, and he was pardoned August 15, 1945.

Joe Majczek

Majczek said in his statement to The SUN and TIMES that he met Rep. Nelson casually at a South Side political rally last spring. Their next meeting was on June 22, Joe said, when Nelson persuaded him to attend a wake for the late A.L. (Tod) Sloan, political editor of the Herald-American.

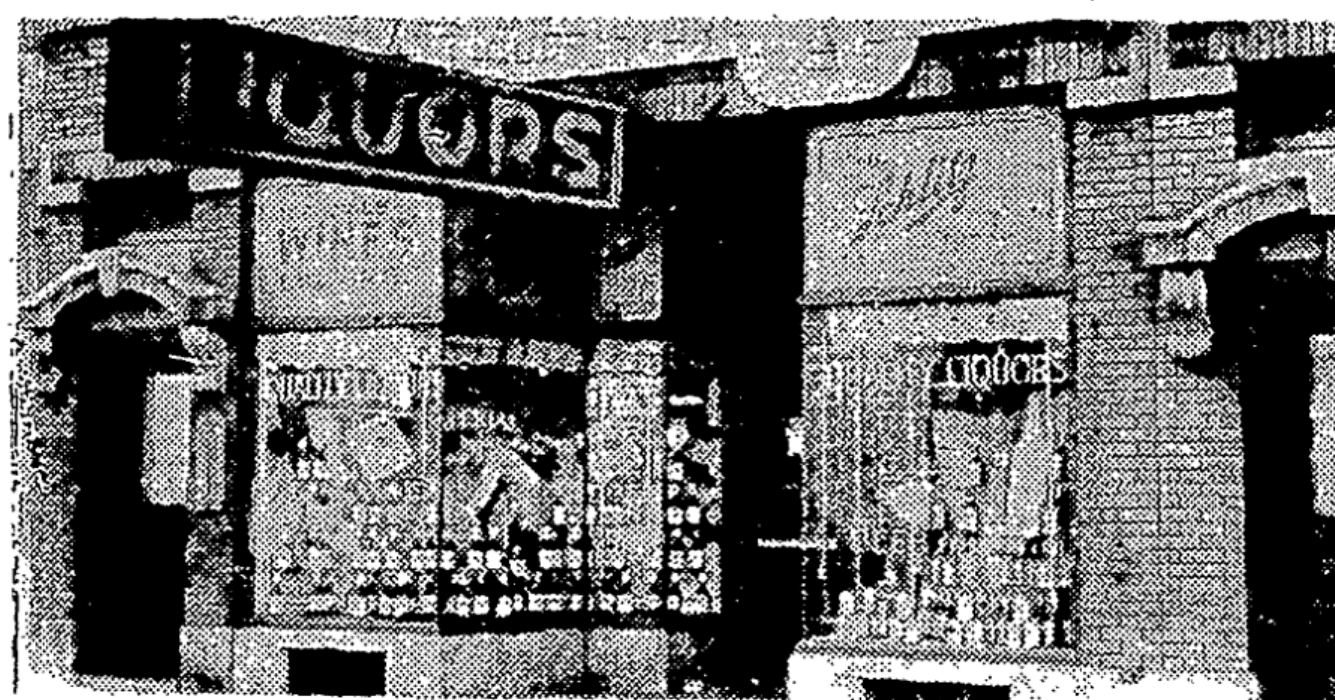

Nelson told him, Majczek said, there would be many legislators at the mortuary and that it would be an opportunity for him to thank them for passing the bill.

After the wake, according to Majczek, he went with Nelson to a combination liquor store and bar at 1924 S. Cicero Ave. Nelson asked for the $5,000 at the bar, Majczek said.

"I was a little dumbfounded by his asking for it," Majczek commented.

He quoted the legislator as telling him:

"It is worth the money, but don't say anything about it. A lawyer would have cost you around a third of the $24,000.

Bar at 1924 S. Cicero Ave. where Joe Majczek says Rep. Ragnar G. Nelson asked for $5,000.

"You know, I did a lot of work for you. I had to push a little here and push a little there and make a few promises.

"Just keep this to yourself, because if it gets out, it's liable to do your boy (Majczek has a son) no good."

Joe told of receiving the $24,000 check July 3 in State Auditor Arthur C. Lueder's office, 33 N. LaSalle St. He recalled that Rep. Nelson went there with him and his mother, Mrs. Tillie Majczek, and then accompanied them to the Continental Illinois Bank & Trust Co.

Nelson told him, the pardoned man said, that he would help get the check cashed and that he would take the $5,000 at once.

There was a delay at the bank, however. Rep. Nelson signed a signature card, Joe said, but that wasn't enough. A teller finally told them to return the following Monday, June 7.

Rep. Nelson drove him downtown in the Packard again on Monday, Majczek said, dropped him at the Continental bank and agreed to meet him later in the LaSalle Hotel lobby.

"I drew out $9,750," Joe said. "I bought $3,750 worth of bonds and $1,000 was for incidentals and a mortgage payment, and $5,000 was for Nelson. I put the $5,000 in an envelope and carried it to the LaSalle."

Majczek said he walked around the Loop with Rep. Nelson while the politician made some office visits. Then they reentered the Packard, Majczek said, continuing:

"He handed me a brown envelope and said, 'You can put it in there after we get out of the Loop a bit.'"

"We went south and, on Michigan Ave. at about 18th St., I pulled out the money and counted it. I put the $5,000 in the envelope and laid it on the seat of the car.

"He took it and put it in his inside pocket, and that was that."

Majczek said the legislator told him after pocketing the money:

"Everything will be cleared up now."

A few minutes before the payment, Joe said, Rep. Nelson stopped briefly at police headquarters, 1121 S. State St.

"When he came back he had a star -- a complimentary star of some sort, I guess -- and a revolver," Majczek said. "He put them on the auto seat. I don't know what he wanted them for."

Joe said in his statement that Nelson gave him this warning, or advice, after the money was paid:

"Remember, there are some things you don't talk about. This is one of them. Think of what it could do to your reputation and to your kid's reputation."

A few days later, Majczek said, Nelson persuaded him to pose with Gov. Green for newsreel pictures concerning the $24,000 award.

"I was so disgusted that I didn't shave and didn't wear a necktie to the governor's office," Joe said. "That was my way of showing my disgust."

(For history of Joe Majczek's fight for freedom, turn to page 16.)

(The SUN and TIMES will tell tomorrow, in another exclusive story what State Rep. Ragnar G. Nelson said when confronted with Joe Majczek's sensational statement.)

5 bandits kidnap 4, loot club

Five bandits yesterday kidnaped a night club owner, his brother and two bartenders, locked them in a broom closet and fled with $3,000 loot.

The night club owner, Andy Mavros, 40, of 12343 S. 71st, Palos Heights, was driving home after closing Gussie's Kentucky Lounge, 6725 S. Ashland Ave.

With him were his brother, George, of the same address, and the two bartenders, Francis Senese, 28, of 7200 Winchester Ave., and John Wozneski, 25, of 2617 W. 69th St.

Stop light holdup

When Mavros pulled up for a stop light at Damen Ave. and Marquette Rd., a shiny black Ford sedan drew alongside his car.

Five men leaped out, three brandishing pistols, and opened the door of Mavros' car. George Mavros was forced into the bandit car and two of the gang crawled into Andy's auto.

A big man, apparently the leader, growled at Andy: "Take us back to your place for the money or we'll break your head."

Back at the tavern, the bandits made the four men remove their pants and lie on the floor of the office. They took about $400 from the victims and a $1,000 diamond ring from Andy.

Struck by bandits

When Andy denied there was a safe in the office they struck him and his brother several times.

They began rifling the office and found about $1,500 in cash. The gang then locked the four victims in a small broom closet, hid their pants and fled.

Andy said two of the bandits were masked and he believed they may have been men who frequented his place.

As they fled, he said, they took several payoff books from the 26 table.

By a chance it's a dance with death

Anthony Derfler, 63, is dead today because he loved to dance.

Here from Hill City, Minn., to visit his brother-in-law, James Rendla of 2229 S. 58th St., Cicero, Derfler and his wife, Julia, went to a dance last night at Pilsen Park, 26th St. and Albany Ave.

Derfler sat on the sidelines through one polka after another. His doctor had forbidden him to dance because of a heart condition. Derfler just tapped his feet.

Then he heard a woman passerby say, "I'd love to dance." Acting on impulse, he jumped to his feet and said, "I'll dance with you." As he did he collapsed and sank to the floor.

While hundreds of dancers looked on, firemen of Rescue Squad 7 worked over him for an hour. Then a doctor pronounced him dead.

How detectives found solution to Freund murder

By John Danovich and Ray Brennan.

In mid-January, 1947, Det. James R. Kennedy told a North Side laundry truck driver: "Don't ever forget that man's face. Think of it every day. Keep his looks always fresh in your mind. Always remember that face."

Det. Kennedy was hunting a pair of savage killers, two men who murdered Otto E. Freund, 84, in robbing his home at 819 Michigan Ave., Wilmette, on Dec. 27.

The murderers had used a chisel, with which the old man had been repairing a toy, to gouge and beat him to death. They also had beaten a maid, Marie Held, 52, and left her for Miss Held was on the edge of death for days, suffering from shock and grievous wounds. Police were unable to question her.

There were no fingerprints in the palatial Freund home, and no witnesses except the maid. And nobody knew whether she could describe or identify the killers, if she lived.

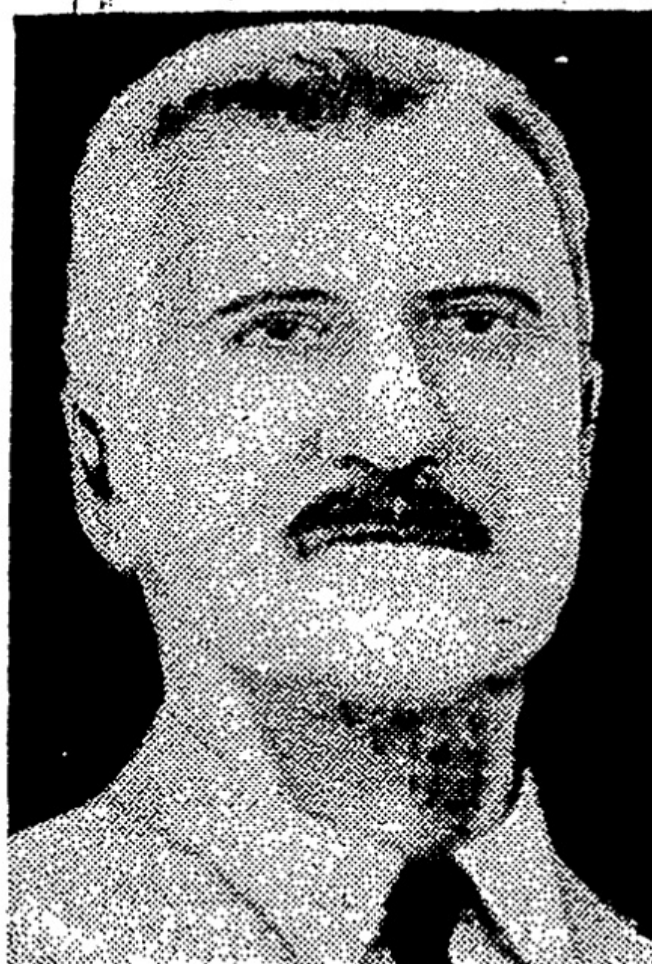

Police Chief Edwin F. White side of Wilmette asked for help from Chicago -- and got it from Capt. Tim O'Connor, Capt. Philip Brietzke, Lt. John Olson, Sgts. Frank Sheehan and Tim O'Connell, Dets. Kennedy, John Glon and Russell Burton.

They set out to connect the Freund murder with a dozen home robberies, in which householders had been viciously beaten, on the North Side and on the North Shore.

No flashes

In book or magazine fiction, a brilliant, rye-drinking detective would have made some flashy deductions, become involved with a blonde, got himself half killed a few times and, at last, nabbed the murderer.

In real police work, it didn't go that way. The detectives settled down to weary, painstaking, routine work. They interviewed every neighbor, passerby, tradesman, delivery boy and other persons who had been near the Freund home.

OTTO FREUND

They checked pawn shops for an $800 diamond brooch and a set of earrings stolen by the killers; watched dry cleaners for bloody clothing.

Jigsaw pieces

They learned some little things--that a dark sedan had been parked at the Freund home about noon on the murder day, for instance. Miss Held recovered enough to give a brief report.

Det. Kennedy had an envelope crammed with 50 pictures of known housebreakers, prowlers, ex-convicts and suspected thugs. He showed them to every person who might have caught a glimpse of the killers in Wilmette.

So thorough was he that he caught up with Frank Elstad, 7505 N. Greenview Ave., who had made laundry deliveries and pickups in the Freund neighborhood.

Near crash told

"This probably isn't important," Elstad said, "but about 12:30 the day of the killing, a speeding, dark sedan cut me off about two blocks from the Freund home. My truck almost was smashed.

"Two men were in the sedan and I got a good look at them. The fellow beside the driver gave me a dirty glare. I'll never forget him; nor the driver either."

Elstad couldn't identify any of Det. Kennedy's pictures--but he promised to keep his memory bright.

(TOMORROW: Miss Held talks).

Warden to speak

Joseph Ragen, warden of the state prison at Joliet, will speak on juvenile delinquency at Morton High School in Cicero on Feb. 10.

(The SUN and TIMES here-with presents a detective story--not a piece of fiction, but a factual account of a real-life hunt for two murderers. It concerns the murder of Otto Freund, one of the most baffling crimes in the Chicago area during recent years, and the true story of how it was solved.)

8 firemen injured in accidents

Eight firemen were injured yesterday while responding to two minor alarms. Injuries in both instances were caused by freakish circumstances.

Five members of Engine Co. 25 were hurt severely when their pumping truck crashed into a viaduct abutment at Union Ave. and 15th Pl., after skidding on a patch of ice. The engine was racing to a box alarm at 730 Liberty Ave.

Engine breaks

The engine broke in two in the crash. It also knocked over a fire plug which flooded the underpass. Those hurt in the crash are:

Peter Sperling, 49, the driver, who in 1935 won a hero's award after knocking out a bandit and helping to solve a murder case; Lt. Patrick Collins, 54, commander of the crew; Edward Schremp, 32, of 2813 S. Loomis St.; Frank Cerkowski, 49, of 6509 S. Damen Ave., and Walter Grigula, 36, of 1903 Ruble St.

Gas explodes

Three members of Engine Co. 76 suffered face burns when a gas pocket exploded as they put out a blaze in an attic apartment at 2050 N. Pulaski Rd.

Released from Walther Memorial Hospital after first aid treatment, the firemen are John Donahue, 35, of 4940 W. Superior St.; John Whelan, 39, of 2630 N. Avers Ave., and Roy Hoff, 50, of 3127 W. Concord Ave.

'Politics' laid to 3 killings

Elmer, Minn., Feb. 1 (UP)-- A suicide note left by Joe Constanzi, 32, explained today that he tried to wipe out the five-man town board because he believed rural politics kept him from obtaining a $5 license to sell beer in his grocery.

Constanzi shot and killed three of the five board members and seriously wounded a fourth last night after the board rejected his application for the license.

The board ruled that one tavern was enough to serve the village population of 100.

The only member to escape was Albert Bernsdorf, treasurer, who owns the village tavern. He ran out and jumped into a snow-bank.

Constanzi fired 17 shots, hitting each of his victims twice with a 30-30 rifle. Frank Svoboda, 35, town clerk, and Supervisor Albert Dupac, 65, were the first killed. Supervisors Louis Ringhofer, 60, was shot through the elbow. Emil Makala, 35, board president, was hit in the body and tried to flee to an upstairs room. Constanzi caught him as he tried to break into a locked room and shot him through the head.

Transit chief shot to death

Baltimore, Feb. 1 (AP)--Claude M. Gray, 55, president of the Baltimore Transit Co., was found shot to death in the kitchen of his home today, police reported.

Associates said Gray had been in "low spirits" recently because of a series of Maryland Public Service Commission hearings on operations of the transit company.

The system recently converted several trolley lines to bus routes. Complaints poured in, and the commission ordered the hearings.

Challenge by Wallace

Columbus, Ohio Feb. 1 (UP)-- Henry A. Wallace, presidential candidate, today called upon President Truman and other political candidates to take a pledge repudiating the support of any un-American group or individual.

Wallace told a rally he would accept the support of Communists, however.

His proposed pledge barred support of any individual or group advocating the limitation of democratic action, the restriction of the civil liberties for reasons of race, color or creed or the violent overthrow of the government.

Safety courses

The first of a series of special safety courses gets underway today at Illinois Institute of Technology. A fire prevention course will be taught all week. Industrial safety and industrial hygiene will be offered during the weeks beginning Feb. 16 and March 15, respectively.

Find divorcee slain

Walpole, Mass., Feb. 1 (UP)-- The mutilated, nearly nude body of Mrs. Mildred Rafuse Clifford, 42-year-old divorcee, was found frozen in the snow in the driveway of her home today.

About 300 yards away the snow was trampled and kicked about as though a fight had occurred. Between the two points lay a trail of bloodstains, a handkerchief and a silk stocking.

Mrs. Clifford was believed to have visited several dine-and-dance spots last night with an unidentified man and apparently was slain on the way home. Divorced last November, she lived with a son, daughter and son-in-law.

New York, Feb. 1 (AP)--Kaiser-Frazier Corp. yesterday announced purchase of a blast furnace and coke ovens in Utah from the War Assets Administration for $1,150,000.

The plant, originally built at a cost of approximately $13,000,000 and operated for the government by the U. S. Steel Corp., has a capacity of 300,000 tons of pig iron a year.

A college problem solved for four

A major problem involving college expenses has been solved for four of the more than 80 Chicago and Cook county high school editors who recently visited the United Nations as guests of THE CHICAGO SUN.

One year scholarships covering tuition expenses up to $400 have been awarded to two editors from city high schools, one from a county school and one from a parochial school.

Winners, all of whom look forward to careers in newspaper or magazine work, include Eleanor Hersons of Marshall and Michael Porte of Von Steuben, representing the city schools; and Nancy Biebel of Evanston Township High School and Gil Klose of De Paul, from the county and parochial schools, respectively.

Won Legion award

Eleanor Hersons, a member of the National Honor Society and winner of the American Legion Award given to the outstanding graduate from her school, has also earned a one year scholarship to Roosevelt College. She plans to continue her studies at the University of Chicago after her year at Roosevelt.

Michael Porte, who will graduate in February of next year, has been active on his Student Council, and has done outstanding work in public speaking. Now in the first semester of his senior year, he hopes to combine a career in law with his literary interests.

Nancy Biebel is still busy with her duties as editor of her school's newspaper as well as many other extra-curricular activities. She plans to concentrate on journalism in her college work.

Seek 'out' for U.S. on aid plan

Washington, Feb. 1 (AP)--The Senate will make it clear that the United States could "pull out" of its European recovery program after one, two or three years without being accused of bad faith, Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said today.

A member of the Senate foreign relations committee, he said he was given this assurance by Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich).

"It could, should and would be part of the bill," Vandenberg said, Hickenlooper reported. In a separate interview, Senator Connally (D-Tex) forecast defeat for any attempts of a group of Republicans, led by Senators Ball (R-Minn) and Wherry (R-Neb), to make major changes in the program.

Connally said he expects this Senate Republican group to battle for sharp cuts in the $6,800,000,000 asked to finance the first 15 months of the program.

Sen. Tydings (D., Md.) described the recovery plan as the best way of avoiding possible war with Russia.

Cable cars strikebound

San Francisco, Feb. 1 (AP) --AFL carmen early today began picketing the California Street Cable Railroad Co., operator of one of San Francisco's picturesque cable car lines.

Picket lines were established after the breakdown of last-minute negotiations arranged by a federal conciliator in an attempt to avert the strike.

The carmen declined to take a wage cut of 9 1/2 cents an hour which the company insisted was necessary to remain in business.

The company's 47 cable cars carry an average of 28,000 passengers daily.

15 auto tags mirror death and heroism

By Art Petacque

In the third-floor office of Sgt. Jack Hanrahan at Police Headquarters hang 15 auto license plates:

It's a pretty unimpressive display, really, until you learn why the plates are there--and the history behind each.

For Hanrahan is head of the robbery detail, and every plate has a lot of shooting, murder, thievery, and heroism connected with it. Each came from the car of a notorious robber or a gang, whose members are either dead or in the penitentiary.

There's No. 1592-549, Ill., 1940, for instance. It was on the car of Joe Karaba. He called himself "The Original

Charlene O'Neil

Joseph P. Karaba

Lone Wolf." Until Sgt. Tim O'Connell caught him one night, Karaba had pulled 87 robberies in gas stations. He's doing one year to life at Stateville now.

One way out

And No. 1167-370, Ill., 1942. In the car that bore that one rode the infamous Polka Dot Gang, led by Charlene O'Neil, the "Hamburger Queen." She's in for 14 years along with three of her boy friends. Another member of the gang was shot and killed in a duel with police.

The license plate of the "Cowboy Gang," whose leader, George Eral, killed himself to avoid capture, also hangs on Hanrahan's wall. Six members of his gang are in the penitentiary.

The most recent addition to Hanrahan's collection was No. 1723-75, Ill., 1947, from the car in which the "Mad Dog Killers," Lowell Fentress, Tom Daly, and James Morelli, went on a murder spree last December and killed two men. Daly himself was killed later in a fight with police. Fentress and Morelli are now awaiting trial for murder.

Probe rail death

How George Scheiman, 30, of 3126 Peoria St., Steger, was killed at an unguarded railroad crossing Saturday night will be told to a coroner's jury today in the Gerardi Mortuary at 2520 Chicago Ave., Chicago Heights.

The auto of Scheiman, a shipping clerk, was struck at 31st St. in Steger by the Cardinal, a fast Chicago & Eastern Illinois train from St. Louis.

Apartment hotels keep old rates

Most of Chicago's apartment hotel dwellers were pleasantly surprised yesterday to find their rent statements contained no increase over the previous month.

As the result of a recent Illinois Supreme Court decision holding that the city rent control office had no power over hotel room rates, hotel tenants had feared rent increases of from 50 to 100 per cent.

A survey of apartment hotels in all sections of the city revealed that the only rent increases were adjustment ones -- that is where comparable apartments were not renting at the same rate.

Some rates raised

The situation was somewhat different in hotels which do not furnish kitchen or cooking facilities. In most cases these hotels increased rents from 15 to 35 per cent. Most tenants had expected substantial increases, however.

Apartment hotel managers all over the city said their tenants were "delighted and surprised" to learn their rents were not increased.

Statements sought

Great numbers of tenants, the manager said, had rushed in early Sunday morning for rent statements.

The reason hotel apartment rents were not increased, the managers pointed out, is that most of them had been boosted 15 per cent late in 1947.

Oswiecim to Buffalo

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 1 (AP)-- Ashes from the mass grave of thousands of European Jews at Oswiecim, Germany, were buried today in Beth Zion Cemetery. The ceremony represented the last rites for 6,000,000 Jews lost through Nazi persecution. Buried with the ashes were a dozen pieces of soap made from the remains of Nazi victims and marked in German "RJS" for "Pure Jew Soap."

The remains were brought to this country by Siona Bialystok, a Jewish refugee who returned to Germany after the war to find all traces of his parents ended at Oswiecim.

Prendergast ends shakeup

Disciplinary action by Police Comr. John C. Prendergast against seven police districts for failure to suppress gambling was completed yesterday.

Eight detectives in three districts had been suspended earlier this month.

In the remaining districts, Prendergast said that Capt. Harry Deaz of Stanton and Capt. William Kells of Cragin had the situation under control in their respective areas.

Capt. George Homer of Austin transferred two detectives back to uniforms, Prendergast reported, while Rogers Park "took care of itself" when Capt. Thomas Duffy retired.

C&NW cites safety role

The Chicago & North Western Railway, now celebrating the anniversary of its founding, has a number of "firsts" to its credit. It was Chicago's first railroad, and later, the first system to install a comprehensive safety program.

Ralph C. Richards, general claim agent for the road, was the father of the safety program. For some time Richards had been perturbed by the number of railroad accidents and their causes and in 1906 wrote a book entitled "Railroad Accidents, Their Cause and Prevention."

On Aug. 3, 1910, the North Western converted his ideas into action by establishing the first railroad department dedicated to safety and prevention of accidents.

Handy Andy

Rips license 'dumpers'

The usually serene countenance of Handy Andy, THE CHICAGO SUN AND TIMES trouble shooter, was grave yesterday as he digested the details of a cafe robbery by bandits who used 1947 plates.

One bandit admitted when captured that the plates had been picked up near Van Buren St. and Ashland Blvd., where a branch office of the secretary of state is located. That's where license plates are sold.

Andy remembered also the murders of Policemen Donald Cook and John Gerka of Hammond on Jan. 12, 1947, by gunmen using discarded 1946 plates on their car. And there are other cases. Andy hurried to Van Buren and Ashland.

Strewn along the curb, in the alley, and on the parkways near the state license office, Andy found scores of 1947 plates. Later, Andy talked to Capt. John Alcock at the Warren Ave. Police Handy Andy is hopping mad.

Station. Action was swift then.

Policeman George Hogan went with Andy and began destroying the plates. Hogan, and other police warned the curbstone mechanics, who attach new plates for 50 cents, to destroy all old licenses or face arrest.

Capt. Alcock warned motorists to destroy old plates.

"Suppose your plates are used in a robbery", he said. "Suppose someone jots down the number. It will be traced to you. And the police who call to investigate will necessarily assume they are after an armed robber. The outcome could be deplorable."

Traffic toll cut slightly

Chicago, in its drive to reduce mounting traffic fatalities, showed a slight improvement last month.

The toll for January was 35 deaths, one less than the same month in 1947. It was 40 under December's 75.

The county listed 11 traffic deaths as against 15 for January, 1947, and 24 for December.

Clarence Krumpf, 49, of 2835 Montrose Ave., a member of the fire insurance patrol, died yesterday of injuries from a collision of his fire truck with an auto.

A pedestrian, Rudolph Haglund, 52, of 6443 S. Peoria St., was killed yesterday when he was struck by an auto at 64th and Green Sts. The driver, High McCormick, 51, of 6344 S. Carpenter St., was held by Englewood police.

Rodzinski's fans cry 'appeasement'

The opposition won't accept next year's substitutes for Rodzinski as conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Walter B. Wolf, attorney for the committee fighting for the renewal of Rodzinski's contract, yesterday tagged the trustees' announcement of six top-flight guest conductors for next season as an appeasement policy.

"This will not meet the question," said Wolf. "It will only set the Symphony back. Granted these men are the best talent available, the orchestra needs the strength of one leader like Rodzinski, rather than a diversity of leadership."

Samuel Laderman, president of International Chemical Workers Union, Local 241, shouted paternalism. The people of this city should have been given conductors, he protested that the people were willing to make up any deficit caused by Rodzinski.

Jerusalem explosion injures 20

Jerusalem, Monday, Feb. 2 (AP)—Twenty persons were injured last night when an explosion wrecked the plant of the Palestine Post, it was reported officially early today.

Despite the official report that there were no fatalities, police at the scene insisted one person was killed.

The blast started a fire which threatened to engulf a block fronting on Hassolei St. in the heart of Jerusalem's Jewish sector.

Physicians said printers working on the ground floor of the pro-zionist, English-language newspaper plant suffered the most serious wounds from flying slugs. Several probably will be blinded, they said.

Officers of the British Criminal Investigation Division, speaking to newsmen said the explosion "could have been set by Arabs or it could have been Jewish terrorists."

An official of the Jewish Agency said: "I think it impossible that it was done by Jews of any political leaning."

The CID officers said the blast occurred after an automobile loaded with explosives drove up alongside the building.

Dime race tied

Everybody won in a unique Race of Dimes held by two Aurora veterans' groups to aid the March of Dimes.

The groups were the Forty and Eight and the Naval Reserve Association. Members lined both sides of the town's main street Saturday.

Then passersby placed coins along the middle of the sidewalk. Coin collectors used brooms and pails and got down on hands and knees to scoop up the dimes. One man gave $25 in dimes, others contributed $5 and $10 bills. A totaled $1,544 was collected.

Bookie raid surprises 65

County highway police, whose gambling raids are usually made at addresses where they have called before, surprised 65 customers when they invaded a handbook at 7232 1/2 Grand Ave., Elmwood Park, Saturday.

A search of records yesterday disclosed why the patrons were surprised: The sheriff's police had never staged a raid at that address before.

Frank Hopkins, 32, of 1852 N. Oak Park Ave. was booked as keeper of a gambling establishment. He will appear, with four other men booked as inmates, before Justice of the Peace Milton H. Tuttle in Morton Grove on Feb. 11.

Storm veers out to sea

New York, Feb. 1-(AP)—A coastal storm, which earlier had been expected to bring heavy snow into Delaware and southern New Jersey, veered out to sea today.

In a sharp revision of its previous forecast, the weather bureau said no snow was expected anywhere along the Atlantic seaboard north of the Virginia coast.

Some trains arriving from southern points were delayed several hours. Railroad officials attributed the delays to low temperatures and a storm in the vicinity of Richmond, Va.

Democrats chided on tax stand

Washington, Feb. 1 (AP)--With Republicans ready to ram their $6,500,000,000 tax-slashing bill through the House tomorrow, with votes to spare, Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) today accused Democrats of "deserting" President Truman's tax policy.

Martin said:

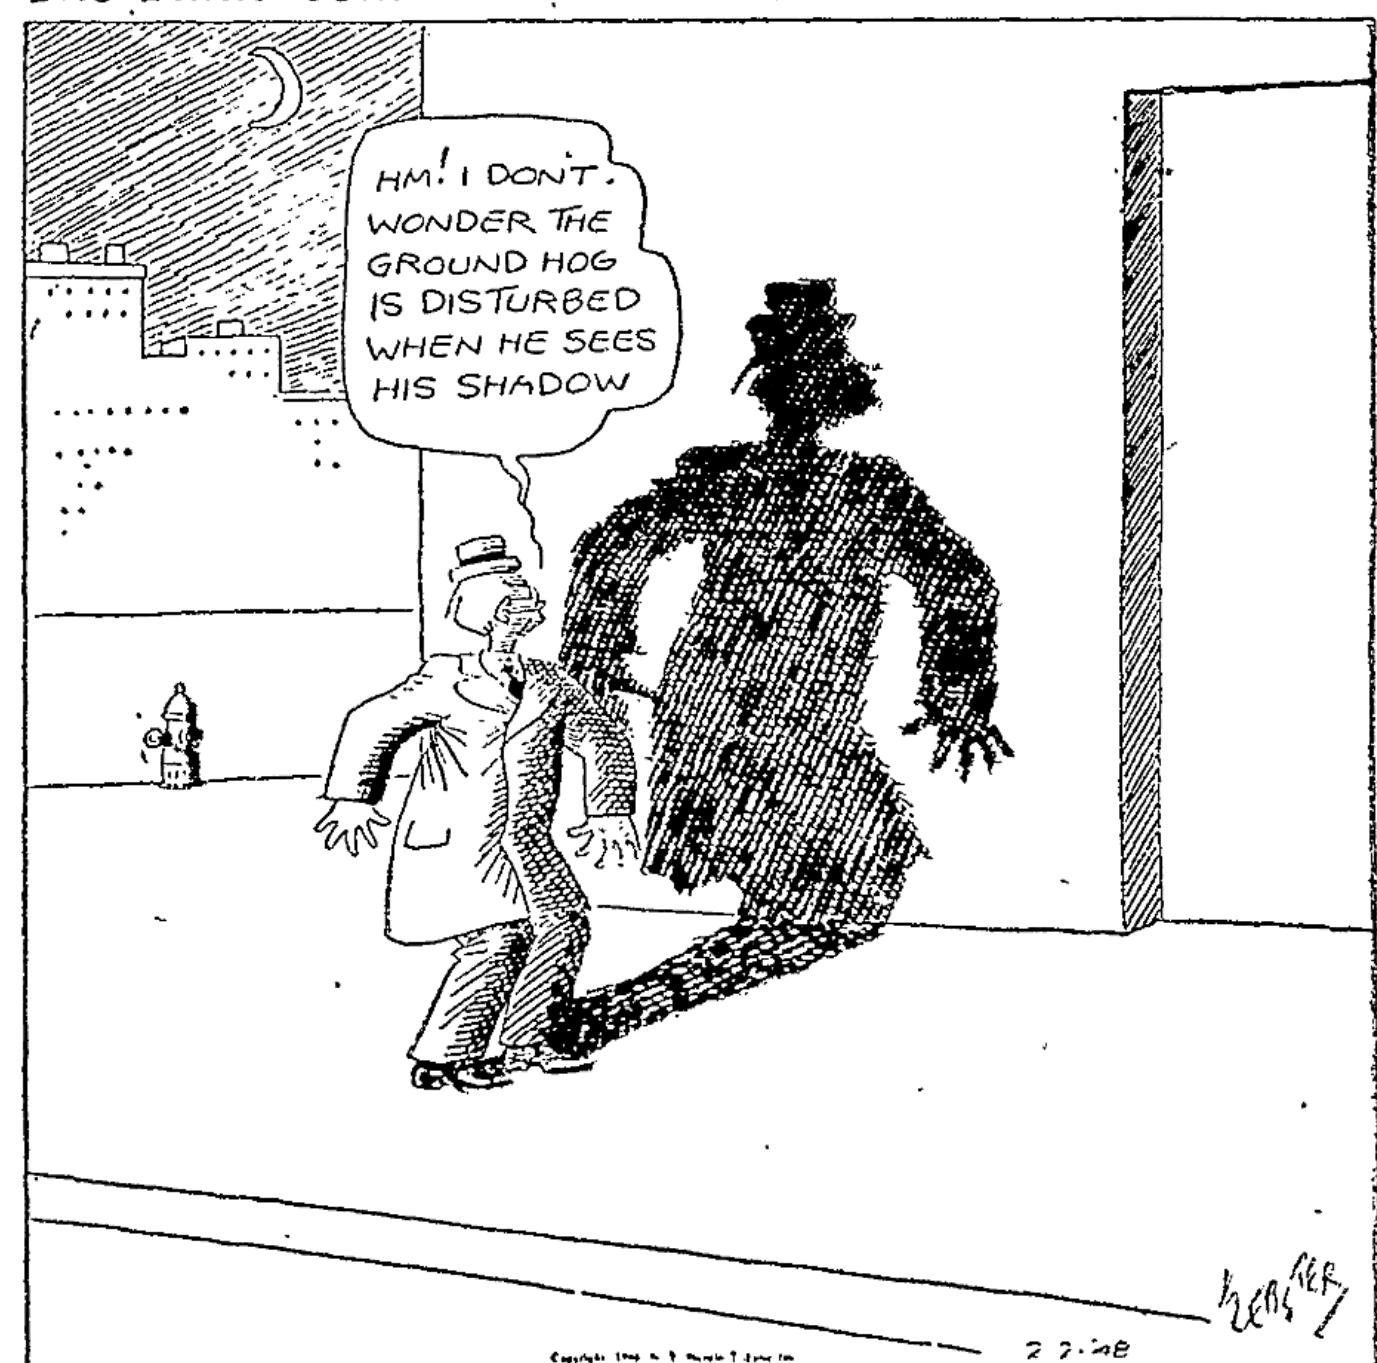

"I'm surprised that the Democrats in the House apparently do not approve of the President's tax plan. They seem to have deserted his proposals."

House Democratic leader Rayburn (Tex.) immediately challenged this accusation. He said that the House Democratic leadership is following closely Mr. Truman's overall suggestion that relief should be given, particularly to low-income persons hit hard by rising living costs, and that the bulk of this revenue loss should be recovered by an excess profits levy on corporations.

The exchange between the party leaders came after Democratic leaders agreed to fight the Republican $6,500,000,000 tax slash in the voting tomorrow with a substitute bill. It would give individuals $4,000,000,000 in tax relief and make up $3,200,000,000 with a special tax on corporations with the biggest profits.

However, Democrats conceded the Republican bill will win easily. Martin said every Republican will vote for it. Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.), author of the bill, said it will win 2 to 1. Republicans have 245 house seats to 185 for the Democrats.

Moslem decries Gandhi slaying

Behind the murder of Mohandas K. Gandhi was a victory of the reactionary opposition to his program of peace, security and religious freedom for India's millions, Sir Muhammad Zafrullah Kahr, deputy prime minister of Pakistan, declared here yesterday.

The stately, gray-bearded Moslem leader, wearing spats and a red fez, arrived at the Union Station to visit his Chicago friends at the Moslem mosque, 4448 S. Wabash ave.

"Now it is up to the leaders of all factions to take strict measures against the violence that is breaking out as a result of this dastardly crime," he said.

Ghandi's murder came because of "his attitude on the communal question," Sir Zafrullah said. These ideas---permission for refugees to return to their homes, harmony of all groups and his non-discrimination program---are the main reasons for the assassination he believes.

Asked if he thought the United Nations can keep down the violence, Sir Zafrullah declared: "I don't think the UN can do much at this time. Experience in India shows that once violence starts there is little anyone can do. It will be very difficult to stop, very difficult."

Reds hint trial of 3 U.S. aids

By Joseph Newman

(Special to THE SUN and TIMES)

Moscow, Feb. 1--A British diplomat and his girl friend, accused by the Soviets of illegal speculation, were expected today to be only the first of a long line of foreigners and Russians to face the same charge.

Cases involving the American embassy are known to be in the hands of the police.

Ian Sampson, second secretary of the British embassy and Valentina Nikolaevna Melnikova, his girl friend, are cited in the press as examples of the "decadent bourgeois."

The Russian girl sold her integrity as a woman and her honor as a Soviet citizen "for foreign rags," the Literary Gazette said.

She was sentenced to two years' imprisonment a fortnight ago for her part in a speculation deal attributed to Sampson.

"Speculation" is used in Soviet Russia to cover all manner of so-called "black market" sales which most foreign residents in Moscow make to Russians. The excessive official rate for rubles compels foreigners to sell food, clothing and other valuable articles to Russians for the rubles foreigners require for living expenses.)

The Soviet press hints that trials of three Russians employed by the American embassy will begin soon. They were arrested in recent months, also for "speculation."

Dramatic story behind Joe's case

It was Oct. 10, 1944, when the dramatic, and successful, fight for Joe Majczek's right to freedom was touched off in The Chicago TIMES office.

On that day, Mrs. Tillie Majczek (pronounced may-check) placed a classified ad offering $5,000 reward for the killers of Policeman William Lundy on Dec. 9, 1932.

TIMES girl Terry Colangelo spotted the little ad, City Editor Karin Walsh assigned reporters -- and then came 10-months of never ending work by Reporters Jack McPhaul and James McGuire.

Mrs. Majczek had scrubbed office building floors for 11 years for the money which she hoped would get her son, Joe, out of prison. He was under sentence of 99 years.

The reporters soon came to believe that over-zealous police, a questionable witness, a fiercely bitter prosecution, a cruelly stumbling defense -- and no real evidence -- had convicted Joe Majczek.

They came to know, after weeks of painstaking work, that Majczek was innocent. But proving it would require real evidence, and that took time to find.

McGuire and McPhaul learned the chief prosecution witness had boasted of having identified Joe falsely as the killer of Lundy, in a speakeasy at 4312 S. Ashland Ave. They found this witness, but she wouldn't talk.

The reporters found evidence that the late Criminal Judge Charles Moltrop had doubted Joe's guilt, had wanted to give him a new trial and had interceded with a member of State's Attorney (now Judge) Thomas J. Courtney's staff, without success.

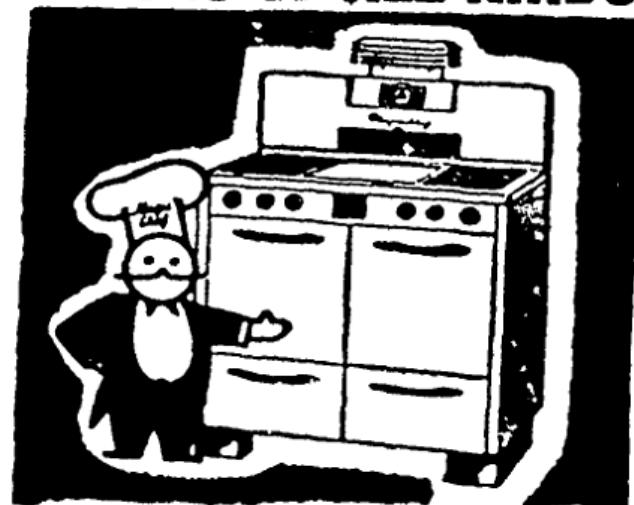

On top of everything, Joe had a solid alibi for the time of the murder. It was shown that the jury which convicted him had been inflamed by a wave of police killings and that his appeal to the higher courts was miserably mishandled.

The TIMES arranged a lie detector test for Joe in prison, and it cleared him completely.

A hearing was granted by the Illinois Board of Pardons and Paroles, and justice could no longer be suppressed. Gov. Green gave Joe a full pardon on Aug. 15, 1945.

For these accomplishments, The TIMES was awarded the Sigma Delta Chi award for outstanding general reporting, the outstanding public services award of the National Headliners Club and the Heywood Brown Award

Blue Book on Nelson

Here is what Rep. Ragnar G. Nelson has written about himself in the Illinois Blue Book, a state publication:

"Born in Sweden, Sept. 9, 1905. Came to the United States the same year. Educated in Chicago grade schools and business college.

"Married, has three daughters, Valentine, Judith and Jeanne. Member South Side Swedish Lodge, Elks, Moose and Lions Clubs. Member Senatorial Committee, 13th Dist., 1936-1940.

"Elected to the General Assembly, 1942 and 1944. Business: insurance. Address: 11320 Edbrooke Ave., Chicago."

of the American Newspaper Guild.

Joe Majczek returned to Chicago, found a job and settled down to a normal life.

The State of Illinois gave him a check last July 3 as compensation for the 11 years and 8 months he spent in prison for a crime he did not commit. Of that money, Majczek now says, he gave $5,000 to a Chicago politician.

Demands VA aid speedup

American Legion officials from three states--Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin--demanded yesterday that the Veterans Administration speed up and expand its services to sick and disabled veterans.

Holding a regional conference at the Morrison Hotel, the Legionnaires submitted their complaints directly to Gordon Beck, regional VA administrator, and other VA officials. They also laid plans to protest to Carl Gray, national VA director, in Washington March 8.

Lester Benston, Illinois rehabilitation director for the Legion, charged the VA now takes three months to rate a disabled veteran, then another three weeks to send him a disability compensation check. The whole process shouldn't take more than two weeks, he said.

Muriel's cook offers evidence

A statement taken from Anni Beyer, employed as a cook by Mrs. Muriel McCormick Hubbard, will be read into the record of the McCormick child custody trial in Superior Court today.

Numerous other statements will be read in both day and night hearings in the much-publicized fight of Mrs. Hubbard to regain custody of her two adopted children. Her brother, Fowler McCormick, has charged she is unfit to have custody of Edith, 14, and Elisha Dyer, 10.

Judge John A. Sbarbaro Saturday heard a 31-page report made by Dr. Willie Mae Mowrer, child psychologist employed by the Children's Center at New Haven, Conn., in 1938 when Mrs. Hubbard took the children into her home "on probation." The report recommended the children be taken away from Mrs. Hubbard because her home was "undesirable."

A total of 375 pages of statements had been read into the record last Saturday, and attorneys report 890 pages have yet to be introduced.

Clerk shot by police

Irving Stanton, 22, of 6225 N. Campbell Ave., a grocery clerk, was held by Rogers Park police yesterday after he was wounded while trying to flee two detectives.

Szigeti recital shows new breadth, glow

By Felix Borowski

By all odds, the best performance that has been heard in recent years from Joseph Szigeti, violinist, was offered by him at a recital given at the Opera House Sunday afternoon. In previous appearances this artist generally has impressed one with the circumstance that his musicianship was his primary quality, and that the violin, as such, was an entity that he never had completely mastered.

On this occasion, however, Mr. Szigeti proved more particularly in the Chaconne from Bach's D minor Partita for violin alone—that he has surmounted certain technical problems which seemed to have eluded him before. The hacked chord-playing of former seasons no longer was in evidence, and even the violinist's tone disclosed a breadth and glow that it had seldom known before. No wonder, then, that there were shouts of bravo from the listeners when the Chaconne had come to its end. The concert-giver then gave the Gavotte from the E major Partita as an encore.

There were two sonatas for piano and violin on the program, with Joseph Levine interpreting—and doing it well—the music for the first-named instrument. The G major sonata by Brahms had everything in it that a fastidious listener could desire.

Of considerable interest was the new—or comparatively new—sonata by Prokofieff. This is music of considerable originality.

New Cadillac out; luxury emphasized

By Maurice Roddy
Auto Editor

The new Cadillac makes its 1948 bow today. It introduces "a new conception of automotive luxury with emphasis on postwar design trends," according to John F. Gordon, general manager of Cadillac Motor Car division and vice president of General Motors Corp.

An entirely new type of compression bumper and relocation of the rear shock absorbers produces improved riding qualities. Other improvements claimed include new steering ratios and better caster adjustment increasing steering ease and handling. The curved windshield glass and narrowed front pillars provide improved vision. Chrome wipers were also evolved to fit the curved glass.

Steering and gear shift columns are concealed behind the instrument panel extension by a new jacket. All instruments are in a compact cluster above the steering column and just ahead of the steering wheel.

Consisting of only two horizontal chrome bars, the radiator grille is lower and wider. Front fenders are blended into the extended body sides. Rear ends of the rear fenders are raised to form vertical fins.

During 1947, Cadillac produced 61,926 motor cars for the second greatest year in company history.

Boat show opens at pier

By Don Bresnahan

When the National Boat Show comes to Chicago, can spring be far behind?

Despite a cold winter wind which whistles around the exposition hall at Navy Pier, manufacturers of pleasure boats are convinced that it is time for the public to start thinking of warm summer lake breezes and, of course, boats.

More than 200 different kinds of boats, valued at more than $2,000,000, are on exhibit at the 15th annual boat show which opened last Saturday and will be held through Feb. 8. They range in size from seven-foot dinghies to 42-foot cabin cruisers which boast all the accommodations of a three-

Included in the exhibit is an all plastic boat, a magnesium boat and several all aluminum boats. Mahogany, which was hard to get during the war years, is back in abundance.

If the owner of a 1948 cabin cruiser doesn't get enough spray outside, he can step in - doors and take a hot shower. Showers, officials say, are becoming commonplace on the larger boats.

"The day of the rich man's yacht is disappearing," said one manufacturer. "The 'poor man's yacht' now has all the latest improvements and gadgets formerly installed only on custom-built boats."

One boat, a 32-foot cabin cruiser, is missing from the exhibit. It was unable to navigate a South Side railroad viaduct, as it was being transported to the show on a truck, and had its top sheared off.

Paris, Feb. 1--The French General Labor Federation (CGT) announced today that it has asked the World Federation of Trade Unions to rule out discussion of the Marshall Plan at the WFTU meeting here next month.

No dummy as hunter

Albany, Ga., Feb. 1 (AP)--Two anxious turkey hunters huddled in their respective South Georgia blinds.

Suddenly, a big gobbler came gracefully through the pine tops. Two guns went "bang." Both men rushed to claim the kill. One picked up the bird and asked: "Who killed you, turkey?"

"Why, you did, Bergen." It was Edgar Bergen of Charley McCarthy fame. Bergen was spending a few days on the South Georgia plantation of Robert W. Woodruff.

Strength seceded from the CGT, admitted that it feared a similar pro- and anti-Communist split was developing in the WFTU.

The British Trades Union Council (TUC) and the American Congress of Industrial Organizations have gone on record as favoring the Marshall Plan.

France's CGT voted against it at a meeting of the national confederation committee in November; the Workers Strength group which broke away from the CGT the following month announced its support of the Marshall Plan, and is pressing for membership in the WFTU.

Paris to start legal trading in dollars

By William J. Humphreys
(Special to SUN and TIMES)

Paris, Jan. 31.—Government officials say legal trading in dollars and Portuguese escudos will start tomorrow. Their statement came as the franc, according to black market quotations, gained 20 points against U.S. money.

There was no immediate indication whether free gold trading would be effective at the same time, though it was passed by the National Assembly Friday.

The favorable vote was considered to have strengthened both the franc and the hand of the "Third Force" middle-of-the-road government. The administration stands between the extremes of DeGaullism and Communism.

Curbs Indicated

Although government spokesmen would not comment on what specific rules would govern money trading, there were unofficial reports that:

(1). At the outset, dollars and Portuguese escudos could be traded only at the Bourse, the Paris stock exchange.

(2). Amounts less than $2,000 and 25,000 escudos would not be accepted.

(3). Trading would be permitted only between 1:45 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

(4). Only over-the-counter deals were to be allowed.

Illegal market quotations are a valid measure of what the franc will be worth on the legal exchange. Before the financial reform was introduced, it required 335 francs to buy one dollar. At weekend, it required only 315 francs, on the 'black market.'

Pound Slips

British fears that free trading would weaken its currency are substantiated by the latest black market rate.

The official rate, following the devaluation of the franc a week ago, is 864 francs to the pound. The illegal quotation today is 780.

If dollar trading must be in amounts of $2,000 or more, it was evident the government had further plans for the tourist trade. The average tourist carries considerably less than that amount.

Woo Tourists

Tourist business is one of the principal objectives of the free money trading act. The government hopes to attract thousands of Americans by making the free franc rate available to them.

One effect of the franc's devaluation was the calling off of trade talks with Czechoslovakia until March to let the franc find a stable quotation.

Last year's Franco-Czechoslovak trade amounted to about 3,000,000,000 francs.

4,281 romances

There were 4,281 couples who got licenses to wed here during January, John J. O'Brien, chief clerk of the county marriage license bureau, reported yesterday. That was 205 less than during January of last year, but 220 more than in December, 1947.

Air smuggler

That's charge leveled against Max Sherwood of Fullerton, Calif. Free on $1,000 bail, flier—who claims he was AAF pilot in Africa during war—is accused by immigration officers of conspiring to smuggle aliens into U. S. by air. Authorities say Sherwood was member of a ring broken by raids that netted 106 aliens. (Acme Telephoto)

Port Washington, N. Y., Feb. 1 (AP)--Four persons died and three others were burned severely early today in a fire which destroyed a two family residence.

The blaze broke out shortly before 4 a.m. while the two families were sleeping.

Police listed the dead as: Mrs. Margaret Larsen, 32, Dennis Larsen, her 6-year-old son, Peter Hansen, 1 1/2 years and Susan Hansen, 2 1/2 years.

Iraq pact rejection sets back British

By Frederick Kuh
(SUN and TIMES Correspondent)

London, Feb. 1--Iraq's repudiation of the new Anglo-Iraq treaty marks a grave set back for Britain's position in the Near East.

When the treaty was signed here Jan. 15, Foreign Sec. Ernest Bevin called it the first of a series with other Middle Eastern states.

But public reaction against the pact was so strong in Baghdad that Foreign Minister Salih Jabr, who had signed the treaty, was forced to resign when he returned to Iraq.

In disowning his government and declining to defend the military alliance just signed with Britain, the 35-year-old regent of Iraq, Emir Abdul Illah, was swayed by the manifestations of nationalist emotion among the people. They were suspicious of the modern and liberal wording of the treaty.

Britain takes time

They believed it gave them simply the trimmings of independence without completely uprooting all signs of vassalage to a foreign power.

The British government by no means regards the treaty as jettisoned. Britain's present policy is to move warily. They are convinced here that time is on Britain's side.

Despite approval which Moscow radiobroadcast on Iraq's disavowal of her alliance with Britain, it would be wrong to sniff Communist forces behind events in Baghdad. The new Iraq cabinet is right wing for the first time since 1941.

Repercussions felt

Repercussions of Britain's dilemma in Iraq are being felt throughout the Middle East.

It will be harder for the British to come to terms with Egypt. Transjordan's premier, now in London discussing revision of the March, 1946, treaty with Britain, is uneasily looking over one shoulder at the Arab nationalists at home.

Emir Feisal, Saudi Arabia's foreign minister who is due in London in mid-February, will also prefer a long spoon in supping with Bevin.

New life ahead

A happier future beckons to 15-year-old Boris Oblesow. Orphan, among 576 alien immigrants arriving in New York aboard Marine Flasher, grins his delight at new chance in land of opportunity. Despite his age, Boris served as interpreter for U. S. Coast Guard in Germany... was orphaned when mother died in bombing raid. He expects to finish school in U. S. (Acme Photo)

Methodists cite Pope

The official publication of the Methodist Church yesterday declared "every Protestant worthy of the name" should support the basic principles of the peace encyclical issued last December by Pope Pius XII.

The Christian Advocate editorial singles out for approval Pope Pius XII's condemnation of class hatred and also the papal warning that individual men, especially those of wealth, must put the common welfare above private advantages and profits.

The editorial concludes by suggesting that peace prayers should be said in family groups as advocated by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Recall early days

SEATTLE (UP)--A pioneer Washington state woman who has spent all but two of her 80 years in the region celebrated her birthday with two parties and a lot of reminiscing.

Mrs. Ella T. Barrows, born in Illinois, came west with her family to San Francisco when she was two years old. That was in 1870. The family traveled on the Union Pacific Railroad one year after its completion.

GI Bill students abroad increase

By FRANK SMITH

During the past year, according to the Veterans Administration, the number of veterans studying under the GI Bill in foreign countries has increased more than 350 per cent.

In France, where the recently devaluated franc makes the dollar look important, VA approved enrollments spurted from three at the beginning of 1947 to 635 at the start of the current year. In the same period, students in Mexico increased from 63 to 461.

On the whole, veterans in foreign schools grew from 1,307 to 6,055. They are studying in 422 schools in 44 countries. Almost half of the enrollment, or 2,741, are in educational institutions in the Philippines. Most of these are Filipinos who served in the U. S. armed forces during the war.

Next largest group is in Canada, 883. Switzerland has 427 GI scholars and Great Britain 356.

Under provisions of the GI Bill, veterans are eligible for study in any country on the same basis as in the United States. Those who wish to study abroad must arrange their own passports, visas and transportation. All arrangements for such schooling are made with the U. S. Department of State which administers the foreign training benefits of the GI Bill.

Four lovely co-eds of Wright Junior College have been nominated for "Queen of the Military Ball" which will be held at Northwest Armory, 1551 N. Kedzie Ave., Saturday night. The event is sponsored by Illinois National Guard units with headquarters at the Armory. It commemorates National Defense Week.

The co-eds are Jennie Burke, 5239 Windsor Ave.; Doris Karnaze, 1730 Irving Park Rd.; Lorraine Weber, 5119 N. Tripp Ave., and Ann Cronin, 2439 Eastwood Ave.

OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often
Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 16 million of kidney rubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Refuse to ban film on Reds

Washington, Feb. 1 (AP)—Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association of America, yesterday rejected a protest from the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship against the movie, "The Iron Curtain." The council had said it would impair relations with Russia.

Hint Soviet purge of German chiefs

By Denis Weaver

SUN and TIMES Correspondent

Berlin, Feb. 1—There are indications of an imminent purge of German officials in the Soviet zone in Germany.

Trial to hear psychiatrist

Dr. William J. Nolan, a psychiatrist, will testify today before Judge Julius Hoffman in Criminal court in behalf of Robert Lessard, 20, the youth who is charged with turning bandit after taking thyroid injections. Lessard, of 1127 Monroe St., Evanston, is charged with threatening a Drake Hotel drug store cashier with a knife in a robbery attempt. His parents said he had changed from a mild, gentle youth into an overbearing, aggressive braggart and bully after getting thyroid shots and gland pills.

Dr. Nolan is expected to testify Lessard is insane and unable to tell the difference between right and wrong.

Elect Wainwright

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, retired, has been elected National commander of the Military Order of the Carabao.

Trustworthy sources say the Russians will soon demand that all officials in their area and in the Soviet sector of Berlin must join the SED (which means Communist) Party or resign.

The Red Army Journal, Taegliche Rundschau, has recently criticized East Zone economic officials as "lagging behind in initiative." Social Welfare Minister Burmeister in Mecklenburg is accused of "sabotaging the building program for workers' homes" and Thuringian Minister Appel of delaying food deliveries.

The initiative in the future, it is added, will be taken by the Soviets themselves. This warning, reminiscent of earlier preludes of wholesale purges, compares in public interest with the now imminent showdown on the currency question for both east and west Germany.

Technically, both areas could have separate currencies but no one knows what would then happen in Berlin. Russian rumors of imminent Anglo-American withdrawal continue to frighten the population despite repeated contradictions on high British and American levels.

Indict state mine official

BENTON, Ill., Feb. 1—Elmer Edmonds state mine inspector of Royalton, was under indictment by the Franklin County grand jury today on a charge of malfeasance.

State's Attorney J. Max Mitchell said the indictment was based on a complaint by Guy Parkinson, a United Mine Workers (AFL) safety committeeman at the Old Ben Coal Corp. No. 11 mine.

Parkinson said Edmonds tried to intimidate him in performance of his duties.

Fix death blame

A coroner's jury investigating the death of John Tuma, 55, of 3518 S. Union Ave., a carpenter, who was crushed beneath a streetcar at 35th St. and Union Ave. ruled that Tuma fell from the car accidentally.

Back from Poland

Memories of devastated land still fresh in her mind, Mrs. Joanna Kupiszewska of Norwood Park returns from two and one-half month trip to Poland where she and husband visited relatives. Concert singer says all available land is being cultivated and people seem to be receiving increased food allowances.

Mind care is sought for young

Adequate facilities to treat and cure juveniles with criminal tendencies were urged yesterday by the Illinois Psychiatric Society.

With a special boarding school staffed with trained personnel, the society said, such cases as that of James Hartmann, 15, convicted knifed slayer, could be averted. The society pointed out that such a suggestion had been made for Hartmann before the slaying, but no facilities were available.

Metal found on wreck rail

Indianapolis, Feb. 1. (AP)—A heavy piece of scrap metal was found yesterday on the railroad crossing where a switch engine left the track and killed a waiting motorist, crushing his auto.

The locomotive was taking empty passenger coaches to the Union Station when it left the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks, grazed the first two autos waiting at the crossing and fell on its side onto the third car.

The car's driver was Robert E. Leffler, 26, of Indianapolis.

Bogus money Red Cross to seek arrest spurs hunt for ring $75 million

Arrest of a man who passed $2,980 in counterfeit $20 bills Saturday spurred federal agents in cracking down on a Chicago bogus money ring.

Daniel Donato Aliano, 29, of 221 W. 25th St., was arraigned before U. S. Comr. Edwin K. Walker after paying for a new auto with the counterfeit $2,980. Bond was set at $15,000.

Aliano told U. S. Secret Service agents he turned the auto over to a friend. The agents speculated that the friend, who remained unnamed, was part of a local counterfeit gang being rounded up.

Washington, Feb. 1 (AP)--Plans for a $75,000,000 American Red Cross appeal will be outlined by President Basil O'Connor at 18 regional meetings beginning tomorrow.

The goal of the 1948 drive, during March, is $4,000,000 below last year's receipts.

... I have long waited an encyclopedia, but never dreamed of owning one as substantial and up to date as this one. I am going to college and am sure it will be a tremendous help to me, and will continue to be helpful long after I have finished school.—Robert K. Medlock, 680 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta, Ga.

The Set For Which He Was Waiting
Very convenient size which doesn't have to be laid on a table to be read. Isn't boring... Clear type which can be read under practically any condition of lighting. Very complete. The set for which I have been waiting.—David E. Butler, 212 McGarrity St., Greenville, S. C.

Cannot Afford To Be Without It

... These books are a necessity, not only in the homes where there are school children, but for adults as well. For the price of this set, a person cannot afford to be without the set, and we appreciate it very much.—Mrs. Richard O. Wagner, 50 Riverside Ave., Quincy, Mass.

Takes Pride In Possession

I am so pleased with the first volume that I have to curb my impatience to have the full set on my shelves. I am surprised that such a superior book—in all respects—can be sold so reasonably. I shall take great pride in its possession.—Will W. Tibbets, P. O. Box 1144, Monterey, Calif.

—Amazed At The Value...

I am very much amazed at the value of this volume for such a low price and can't wait for the others. I think every home should have this Encyclopedia.—Willie C. McElvaine, 284 Fulton St., S. E. Warren, Ohio.

—An All Around Money Saver...

... After comparing this volume with a volume from another encyclopedia, I am convinced that this is not only the best value but an all around money saver and value.—Celia Henry, 111 E. 126th St., N. Y. 35, N. Y.

A Great Addition To Any Library

... A wonderful set like this is a great addition to any library, and one which can reasonably be afforded by any household. I can assure you that in a home where there are children of school age, such an acquisition will be a great help in their school work. The Funk and Wagnalls' encyclopedias will prove invaluable in my position.—David J. Dillinger (Editor), 3640 Jackman Road, Toledo, Ohio.

WE ARE now on press with our new 1948 Edition of the Funk & Wagnalls New Standard Encyclopedia, which in previous editions sold over 15,000,000 volumes—an amazing record.

This latest edition, newly revised, we have allocated among the newspapers and magazines carrying out Winter advertising program. In accordance with this plan we have set aside 1,500 sets for readers of this newspaper and now invite you to become the owner of a set—making you this extraordinary offer to enable you to become acquainted with the volume before you decide to buy.

We want to send you Volume I of the set with our compliments. Merely send us 10c to cover our mailing cost—more as evidence of your good faith than anything else. This volume is yours to keep without any further obligation on your part. If, after examining Volume I, you want the rest of the 27-volume set, you may receive it at an extremely low price through our book-a-week plan, explained later in this announcement. Or, if you want no further books, you merely drop us a postcard saying so, and that ends the matter.

Some Facts About This Encyclopedia

We expect to enclose with Volume I a small pamphlet giving the facts to show that this is one of the finest encyclopedias anyone can buy for home use—unsurpassed by any other at any price.

In the meantime, we want to give you a few of the facts printed in the pamphlet, so as to interest you in taking the trouble to send for Volume I.

The new Winter 1948 Edition contains over 52,000 subjects, covered in separate articles. Compare this with any other encyclopedia in the world. You will find that this number is at least 30% greater than in encyclopedias costing you up to four times as much as ours.

Each volume (comprising over 512 double-columned pages) contains over a quarter of a million words—over 7,000,000 words in all—which will give you some idea of the completeness of coverage of each subject.

Each volume is as up-to-date as human ingenuity can make it. In this edition the subjects have been revised to cover events of this last year, and each volume, as it goes to press, is brought finally up-to-the-minute. Our unique book-a-week delivery plan, bringing you the volumes almost as they come off the presses, makes it the most up-to-date of encyclopedias.

Better still—later volumes will contain events which have not yet occurred!

Easy-Reading, Handy Volumes

Editor-in-Chief of the original edition was Frank H. Vizetelly, the beloved "Viz" of radio fame, and editor of the unexcelled Funk & Wagnalls New Standard (unabridged) Dictionary. Surrounded by a host of authorities in many fields, he brought this immense work into being.

But the books are easy to read! Your children in grammar and high school can read them, use them with profit. Free of technical detail, abstruse wording and dry-as-dust research specialist attitude—and free also of concise, over-abbreviated, fact-omitting brevity—this grand encyclopedia will be your rainy evening companion for many years to come.

And in spite of their truly enormous contents, each volume can be held in one hand! Gone is the old-fashioned bulky, cumbersome format—big, heavy books that easily drop and as easily break. Here is a new, streamlined, USABLE set that is attractive, interesting and handy for daily reference.

Nor does the almost incredibly low price we have set on the remaining volumes indicate the quality of materials and labor that went into the printing and binding of the set. We have used a high-grade book paper, cover board, and binding cloth. The printing is crisp and clear-cut, and the work of binding has been done by one of the largest and best-known firms in the field. These are first quality books, as of course you will soon see for yourself.

American Families Will Begin to Build Sets

HOW THE PLAN WORKS

1. Send in coupon below with ten cents in coin or stamps to cover mailing cost of your free book.
2. By return mail you receive Volume I of the new 1948 Edition of the Funk & Wagnalls New Standard Encyclopedia, in the edition you choose. This book is yours to keep as our gift.
3. If after reading and examining your free volume you decide you do not want the other volumes of the set, merely drop us a line saying so, and that is all.
4. If, however, you DO want the other volumes at the extraordinarily low price we have set upon them, you will receive the rest of the 27 volume set as they come off press—at the rate of two volumes every two weeks until your set is complete. You pay no money in advance, but only for volumes received, and AFTER they have been received.

SEND COUPON BELOW AT ONCE!

Unique, Book-a-Week Plan

Our plan, which has been tested and approved by many thousands of appreciative purchasers, gives you the books almost as quickly as they come off the presses.

The first few volumes are now on press. Volume I delivered to you immediately. Two weeks later, unless you cancel your reservation after examining Volume I, the next two volumes are mailed to you. Two weeks after that the following two volumes are sent you, and so on. You thus receive your volumes, freshly off press, at the rate of a volume a week.

YOU DO NOT PAY FOR ANY BOOKS IN ADVANCE—We enclose a bill with each two volumes, which you pay within five days after receiving the books. Considering the amazingly low price of the set, and the fact that you pay for it at the rate of only a book a week, our own pay-as-you-go plan therefore puts no strain at all on any pocketbook.

How much are the volumes? Here's the surprise. You pay only $1.39 for the De Luxe binding, plus 11c mailing cost. The complete set thus costs you only a small fraction of what other high-grade encyclopedias would cost—and we want only the opportunity to PROVE to you that ours is unexcelled for your use.

A Choice of Editions

With this announcement we offer you a choice between our De Luxe Edition and our Library Edition of the encyclopedia.

The De Luxe Edition, at $1.39 per volume, is bound in dark blue, leather-grained cloth, stamped in red and gilt, as illustrated here, with head and tailbands, and harmoniously stained pagetops. Endpapers and frontispieces are color reproductions of woodcuts by Hans Alexander Mueller, renowned artist in that medium, the frontispieces being a set of woodcut portraits of American Presidents.

The Library Edition costs slightly more ($1.89 per volume plus the same 11c mailing cost), and has all the features described above, plus a more expensive binding. The covers of this superfine edition are in a tan linen-weave cloth, with red and black title panels, decorated with genuine 22 carat gold leaf, bright and untarnishing—making in all an extremely handsome and dignified set of books.

You may have your choice of these editions in sending for Volume I, at the same 10c mailing cost. However, before indicating your choice of editions in the coupon below, please remember the difference in price. And hurry! First come, first served. Send off the coupon TODAY!

UNICORN PRESS, Authorized Publishers
Brooklyn 1, New York

I enclose 10c in coin or stamps, for which please send me Volume I of the new 1948 Funk & Wagnalls New Standard Encyclopedia in the edition checked below:

☐ DE LUXE

☐ LIBRARY

Please also reserve the balance of a set for me in the same edition.

If I decide to cancel the reservation after examining Volume I, I will write you saying so, and there will be no further obligation; otherwise you may send me two more volumes every two weeks, and I will pay within 5 days after receiving them, at the rate of $1.39 per volume plus 11c mailing cost for the De Luxe Edition (or $1.89 per volume plus same mailing cost for the Library Edition)—and that's all!

Volume I is mine to keep in any event.

Psychology tops book call

The nation's library cards reflected the nation's troubles in 1947, according to results of a survey disclosed yesterday at the American Library Assn. conference in the Edgewater Beach Hotel.

Personal problems, not housing, business or international affairs, were the average reader's main concern. Books on atomic energy went "practically untouched" while eager readers besieged librarians for psychology volumes.

Psychology increased in popularity, the librarians believe, because of popularization by the movies and a need by individual readers for an "answer" to their problems.

BOOK DAY

Edited By Emmett Dedmon

By Wendell Johnson

DEL PALMA. By Pamela Kellino. Dutton. Pp. 254. $2.75.

This is the story of Silky Verity, bobby soxer who carried it too far.

Tom, her husband, etched the turning point sharply "Look, little Silky, you are a little person who spends a lot of time alone. And when you are not alone you are gossiping with silly women friends or watching the pictures or reading novels. All of these things excite your romantic imagination."

It's nothing unusual. Think of the millions of books sold about girls married to shieks, carried off by princes, duchesses loving cowhands . . . Everyone longs for romance. . . And, darling, you become obsessed with the idea that you were the wife of Del Palma."

Silky Verity, bored with being the wife of the pulse-wrecking bridegroom who had become a hard-plugging advertising executive, happened to run into a real estate agent who sold her the swank country house of Del Palma, the Cuban singer (born Jim Palmer, of Preston, Lancashire). Del Palma's wife, Cigali, had died recently, he was broken up over it, wanted to forget.

Moving in and out of what had been Del Palma's bedroom, bath, study, touching the piano keys over which his fingers had flown, looking hour upon hour at the paintings Cigali had done for his admiring eyes, feeling his presence day and night—Silky gradually succumbed to the obsession that she was no longer herself. Cigali had come back, lifted from the grave by her undying love for Del Palma, and had taken possession of Silky's helpless body. In short, Silky should have gone to see a psychiatrist.

Instead she went to see Del Palma. She was as persistent as a delusion—her own. Being Cigali, she could no longer stay with Tom. Being Silky, she didn't fool Del Palma. In the last paragraph she is chasing him across a bit of English landscape, shrieking, "I am Cigali! I am Cigali!"

It all goes to show what can come of reading trash, going to bad movies, and having no hard, useful work to do. In "Del Palma," Pamela Kellino (wife of the English actor, James Mason) has simply got inside a bobby-soxer's daydream, unhooked the guy ropes, and let it sail away on its crazy course.

As entertaining a stretch of nausea as this incredulous reviewer has staggered through in ages.

Boy 10, saves pal, 9, from icy creek

Jerry Ceci, 10, will be a hero when he returns to his 5th grade classroom at the Washington School in Joliet today.

Jerry and a playmate, Robert Harrison, 9, were playing on frozen Hickory Creek near their homes Saturday when the younger boy plunged through the ice. Jerry started to run for help, then realized that Robert couldn't keep himself afloat in the icy water until further aid arrived.

So Jerry crawled back onto the ice and cautiously extended a hand to his companion. Robert grabbed on and slowly worked his way out of the water, back onto the ice. Then both boys slithered off the ice and ran home to the apartment building in which they live at 617 Richard St., Joliet.

When their teeth stopped chattering they told their parents what had happened.

Berlin strictly on mark

Berlin, Feb. 1 (AP)—Berliners are passing money around at a speed which sometimes wears numbers off the paper marks.

The city is apparently on a mad hunt to convert paper money into personal property or Allied money. In three weeks the price of an American dollar jumped from 180 to 360 marks on the black market. The military exchange rate is 10 to the dollar in the U.S. zone of occupation.

American officials disclosed recently that the U.S. treasury had printed new currency for both occupied Germany and Korea. It was to be issued in the event of continued failure to agree with Soviet Russia on a peace settlement.

Berlin has had currency jitters several times since the war but never on the recent scale. The man in the street feels certain he will get one or two new types of money, depending on whether the Allies agree. He is confident the present German mark will be junked.

For this reason Berliners with money use their marks to buy furniture, gold, silver, gems, coffee, cocoa, cigars, stockings -- anything considered to have tangible value.

Recent auctions by the city's top firms have been crowded. Police were called at times to restore order. Old paintings which formerly sold for 20,000 marks went for more than 100,000. Prices of gold and silver more than doubled. Antique shops' shelves are half bare.

One rumor recently was that any currency reform would exempt small coins. As a result pocket money is scarce. Rather than give small change, ticket girls at subway and elevated stations sell only weekly commutation tickets at two marks each. Many customers give postage stamps for small purchases. As a result merchants find themselves competing with the post office.

Sled fun fatal

St. Louis, Feb. 1 (AP)—Mrs. Agnes Schwartz, 38-year-old mother, was injured fatally last night when thrown from a sled on which she and another woman slid down a hill "just for the fun of it." Her companion, Mrs. John Parker, escaped with bruises.

Soviet budget up 124% from 1940

By Joseph Newman

(Special to The SUN and TIMES)

Moscow, Feb. 1—The third postwar budget submitted for 1948 by the Supreme Soviet calls for more than twice the amount spent in 1940, the year before the Russians went to war.

In the last eight years the budget increased from 173 billion rubles to 388 billions -- a jump of 124 per cent.

(In the same period the U.S. budget rose from 12 billion to a requested 39.6 billion dollars.)

War expenditures naturally started the budget rocketing in 1941. The peak was reached in 1944 when the military took 52.5 per cent of a budget totaling 214 billion rubles.

Since then the army and navy have been taking a smaller share. But the war left devastation in its wake and the big expenditures formerly needed to finance the defeat of Germany now are used for reconstruction of the vast areas the Nazis destroyed.

The greatest share of the 1948 budget goes for expansion of the national economy, which will get 39 per cent of the total.

Education, public health and social security holds second place, taking 30 per cent as against 24 per cent in 1940. Administrative expenses will take 3 per cent of the total, compared with 4 per cent in 1940.

Explosive issues challenge to UN

Special to THE SUN and TIMES

Lake Success, N. Y., Feb. 1—Several explosive political items are among the 43 subjects before the United Nations Economic and Social Council's meeting here. They include:

1. A Yugoslav demand for the return of $56,000,000 in gold reserve held in the United States.

(The gold, belonging to individual Yugoslavs, was frozen by the United States government when Germany overran Yugoslavia. It has not been released because of the fear that it will not be returned to its rightful owners.)

2. An American Federation of Labor proposal for a survey of forced labor and ways to stamp it out.

On the economic side, there will be discussion of reports from the commissions for Europe and the Far East, along with debate over establishment of similar commissions for Latin America and the Middle East.

In the social field, the schedule includes labor and human rights items, plus proposals for an international convention outlawing genocide--defined as the destruction by violence of racial, religious, political and cultural groups.

The 'war program'

IN OPPOSING the American plan for European reconstruction, Americans who are neither Communists, isolationists nor nationalists, but internationalists, say the United Nations, and not the United States, should be handling the problem. Our failure to use the UN and UNRRA divided Europe, they say, and led to the 'cold war.' This failure was Truman's, they insist, not Stalin's.

Irving Pflaum

Their case against President Truman is three-fold: (1) He and Byrnes repudiated and reversed FDR's foreign policy, especially his Russian policies. (2) Truman's so-called 'Doctrine' divided the world and brought us nearer to war. (3) The Truman administration supports a bipartisan policy which deliberately provokes and antagonizes the Soviets.

This case against Truman can be put another way: His bipartisan foreign policy destroyed Big Power collaboration; rejected UNRRA and the UN; alienated the Soviets and created a tense atmosphere of suspicion and fear. Having done all this, the Marshall Plan was proposed, when it was certain that Moscow would refuse to co-operate.

* * *

Thus, say these critics, the U. S., not Russia, divided Europe, caused the cold war and now makes it warmer, day by day. This is what Henry Wallace calls the "war program" of the two major U. S. parties. The purpose of his third party, he says, is to abolish this program, reverse the trend and "return to Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam."

* * *

Yet the case for Truman, for Bevin and for all western statesmen today, rests on a record of persistent, deliberate and serious Soviet violations of post-war agreements and sabotage of the UN. The western governments believe these Soviet actions fit into a pattern of planned expansion, a pattern that was made in Moscow long ago.

Western policy today, therefore, is an answer to, not the cause of, Soviet expansion! Its purpose is to stop it.

It is based on the assumption that it can be stopped—that Moscow is unwilling or unable to make war.

Eventually, they believe and hope, Moscow will drop aggression and expansion for co-operation and compromise.

John Dreiske

Green raps Fleck

Republican Committeeman CHARLES FLECK of the 45th ward recently took a dandy tongue-lashing from Gov. GREEN on the general subject of biting hands that feed one.

It seems to be one of the peculiar notions the governor has that, since Fleck holds his job as chairman of the state liquor commission, he shouldn't be going around attempting to upset the governor's political designs.

Fleck offended lately by joining with rebel forces on the county central committee to queer Public Administrator JOHN T. DEMPSEY'S plans to become the candidate for state's attorney. Another recent offense had to do with Fleck's efforts to "persuade" Committeeman GEORGE D. WILLISTON, secretary of the county committee, to come over with the rebel forces.

John Dreiske

The governor also is trying to bring about permanent peace on the county committee through representatives who are attempting to set up a managing committee to run the show.

As first set up, the "managing committee" would be composed of Committeemen JOHN LEONARD EAST, chairman of the county committee, and Public Administrator JOHN T. DEMPSEY, representing the administration faction, and Committeemen SINON MURRAY and EDWARD F. MOORE, representing the rebels.

Murray and Moore proposed that WILLIAM N. ERICKSON, president of the county board be added. Then the administration representatives said that, in that case, State Sen. ARTHUR J. BIDWILL, River Forest, would be added, leaving it all even again. There the matter has rested for a time.

Illinois Republicans have given up completely on Gov. THOMAS E. DEWEY of New York so far as the nomination for president is concerned. They are confident Dewey and Sen. ROBERT TAFT of Ohio will kill each other off, but are high on Gov. EARL WARREN of California. Should Warren get the nomination, it is being speculated, Gov. Green is still "alive" for the national ticket.

* * *

STATE REP. PETER C. GRANATA, one of Murray's foremost cohorts, is being slanted for speaker of the state house of representatives in the 1949 session by the Murray GOP factional forces...It is possible that Democratic candidates for Municipal Court judge will quote chapter and verse from reports of the Appellate court in their campaigning against a certain candidate on the opposing GOP slate...PAUL ROTHENBURG will be unopposed for re-election as Republican ward committeeman in the 24th, following withdrawal of MARTIN ROSEZWEIG who is joining forces with the Rothenburg regular GOP organization.

Lewis---oil salesman

Washington--One of the smartest words around Washington the last time John L. Lewis pulled out the United Mine Workers was that "he's the best salesman in America for oil furnaces."

The idea was that householders, railroads, and many others interested in combustibles had made up their minds that if he could call a strike that easily, and cut off their coal-bin supply, they had better find something simpler to burn.

Carleton Kent

petroleum.

At least in the East, people who sport oil burners in their furnaces here are on short rations.

* * *

THE EASTERN resident whose castle is heated by a coal fire has become an important citizen. You can take off your sheepskin coat when visiting him. In fact, several sheepskins remain unclaimed in my castle. We are going to eat them, with a left-over rice dish, next week.

The word we get here is that the oil shortage is not anything that could have been easily foreseen or averted.

The government says so, and so does the petroleum industry.

The oil burner industry is silent on the issue. American production is expanding, and the Army and Navy aren't stockpiling oil for national defense purposes, it is said.

Rep. John E. Rankin (D.-Miss.), who ran fifth last year in the campaign for the seat of Sen. Theodore G. Bilbo, which he might have been thought to consider his for ideological reasons, has come to the rescue of the frozen north.

Rankin understands that it isn't only New England or the eastern seaboard that is frigid. You get the idea from speeches of his last week; that everything north of the Mason-Dixon line is in need of immediate cold relief.

And John is willing to ignore the snide remarks thrown at some of his politics and come to the rescue of northerners, as they go into their aspic state, will merely credit him as a prime worker for the bill authorized last session to improve navigation on the Tombigbee River.

* * *

RANKIN WAS on his feet twice last week to point out to these carpetbag types that help is coming from Old Dixie. Let the boats go up the Tombigbee.

Let the boats go up the Tombigbee, he said, and the North's problems are over. And he described, with great feeling and also statistics, how pleasant and cheap it would be to barge oil up the Tombigbee to the Tennessee River, down the Tennessee to the Mississippi to Cairo, and up the Illinois waterway to Chicago, the Great Lakes, and the whole wide world.

And all it would cost is a letter to your congressman asking him to go along with Rankin on an appropriation for the project. Unless, of course, you have principles, or no oil burner.

International Incident

Among local fellows whose memories were warmed by Carter Harrison's book on his operations with the Red Cross in France in World War I was Fred Bowman, vice president of the Wilson Sporting Goods Co. Fred told me about being in Battery D., 129th Field Artillery, 35th Division, the day in February, 1919, when Pershing had the then Prince of Wales review the division. Harrison recalled that the field was a mudhole and a cold rain was falling. With the war being over, a flu epidemic on and the doughboys eager to get home it was no time for any fancy business such as a review of troops, old Carter said.

Fred adds that there was one little thing that happened in that review which gave the captain of the battery early training in handling a touchy international situation. The captain has had plenty of them to handle since.

The outfit had spent hours shining shoes and getting attire and equipment so it would be OK to Black Jack's eagle eyes. And then they marched out to stand ankle deep in the mud while Pershing and Eddie Windsor and other notables walked by and inspected them.

* * *

Battery D was composed mostly of Kansas City Irish. None of the outfit suffered from any impediment of speech. Another fellow here in town who can tell you about them is Verne Cheaney of the Gary interests. The captain was Harry S. Truman, a Mason surrounded by a band of KCs. Capt. Truman bragged that he had one of the smartest fighting outfits in the whole AEF.

Well, as Pershing and the Prince of Wales passed Battery D standing as stiffly at attention as shivers and goose-pimples would permit, some Hibernian of the outfit spoke out audibly to the captain: "Harry, ask the little (a four-word vivid term usually used affectionately by American troops) when he is going to free Ireland!"

* * *

Bowman does not recall that Capt. Truman stepped out of formation and put the question right up to the Prince but he does remember that following the query you could have heard a feather drop in the mud. Then the slosh of the feet through the cold gumbo was resumed. Eventually Ireland was freed and chances are that a son or sons of the Battery D member who asked the question fought in GI clothing to preserve the neutrality of liberated Ireland.

The Question

How often do you change your hair style?

(Submitted by C. Bodovnac, 2112 W. 18th St.)

The Place

Dearborn and Adams Sts

The Answers

HARRIET STONE, 5504 Berenice Ave., hostess: "Never

I think the hair style I now wear is youthful, becoming and so easy to fix. Of course, it demands more brushing, but not so much fussing and fretting. I'm not the type to wear severe or sophisticated styles, so I'm thankful that I can wear my hair in a long bob. My job requires me to wear simple, plain clothes and that includes hair style, too."

VIRGINIA GREENSTONE, 1605 E. 72d St., supervisor:

"Very, very, rarely. I wear it as simply as possible. I really don't have much time to fuss with a fancy hair-do so I avoid all the bother and wear my hair short. All I do is comb it out and slip in a few pins. It takes no time at all, and the hair looks simple and neat. Of course, this hair style will last until I hit another bright idea for shortcuts to neatness."

MRS. FRANK HITER, 1448 Lake Shore Dr., housewife: "I change my hair style according to my activities. My hair style depends on where I'm going and what I'm doing. For sports, I simply pin it back with a barrette. But for every-day wear or a special event I wear it in an up-do. My hair is naturally curly and I can't wear it in a long bob. Besides, I believe an up-sweep adds smartness to a woman."

WINONA YOUNG, 927 Dakin St., organist: "I never change my hair style. I comb it the same way and let come what may. I always wear it in a short bob. It takes very little time and effort -- and the results ARE good. I'll admit that although I fix my hair the same way when I comb it, it always looks different. Maybe that's what I like about a short bob --- it's so unintentionally versatile."

Opinion of The People

Only letters including name and address of the writer will be considered for this column. However, signature will be withheld upon specific request. Letters should be brief.

Ideas and dollars

I've concluded after some study of the Marshall Plan that it resembles a pipe-dream of some heedless giver who gives more than he can afford to in order to keep solvent and prosperous. And who, unless he remains solvent and prosperous, can, in the long run, aid neither himself nor others. Unreal again is its attempt, to fight Communism, an idea, with dollars merely. You can't fight ideas with money, but only with other ideas, plus money more or less. Money goes in the ratholes of lip service. Ideas persist. A. C. C.

Our defense

Paul R. Stout, in his letter, has the opinion that since the birth of the atomic bomb, a large standing reserve is unnecessary. He would put all his confidence in a push-button for our defense. War never has, and never will be so simple.

Every major conflict brings us closer to a total war, and if total war does come, every able-bodied man will be called for service. To wait for any enemy to drop an atom bomb or a bacterial plague, and then mobilize, would be nothing but suicide.

America isn't militaristic by nature; but there is only one democratic way we can prepare a defense - universal military training. W.G.B.

Saving money

I have found a few simple hints for saving money which I would like to pass on to readers. 1. Save all nickels, dimes or quarters coined during a certain year - birth, graduation or marriage year. 2. Join "Opportunity", "Christmas" or "Vacation" clubs. You "earn" the small payments by close attention to your miscellaneous spending. 3. Watch the papers for announcements of free art exhibits, lectures, concerts or other forms of good entertainment. 4. Buy seasonal foods only, or if possible, get together with neighbors and buy in larger quantities. 5. Last but not least, put every room to work. A vacant room is an expense. Rent a spare room. MRS. BERNICE FREEDMAN 2049 N. Drake

AP explanation

THE TIMES of Jan. 15 published an "Opinion of the People" letter questioning the accuracy of an AP dispatch (stating French Communists abstained from voting thanks for the Friendship Train.).

Appended was an editorial note which showed THE TIMES had referred the question to the French Embassy in Washington, in the circumstances an interested party. The Embassy's reply was against The AP. We have gone further into the matter. I enclose a copy of a telegraphed report from Preston Grover, chief of the Paris bureau.

ALAN J. GOULD
Assistant General Manager
The Associated Press

Grover's report from Paris follows:

"President Edouard Herriot read the resolution of thanks to the Assembly and asked that those supporting it raise their hands. Reporters noted that all except those on the Communist benches raised their hands.

"No hands were raised on the Communist side. Then Herriot asked for those opposing to raise their hands. No hands were raised, not even on the Communist side of the house.

"Veteran reporters accepted this as an abstention from voting although technically under French parliamentary procedure a formal action is required by a deputy if he is to be listed as abstaining.

"When no hands were raised in opposition, Herriot said amid a din of applause: 'I am glad the House is unanimous.'"

Editorial Opinion of The SUN and TIMES

Teachers' Real Friends

The Chicago Tribune attempts to make political capital of the increase in real estate taxes resulting from the school board's decision to pay teachers a living wage.

The Trib says the school board "connived" with the teachers' unions to bring about a strike threat. Then, it deduces, the city council "meekly capitulated" because of the threatened strike. The Trib concludes:

"To avoid a temporary difficulty, the Democratic bosses of this community have invited untold trouble in the future over collection of taxes and over the maintenance of public services. The bosses are taking the short view."

Citizens who want school board affairs kept out of partisan politics should be told the names of the "Democratic bosses" who have jeopardized tax collections and the city's future. Those who inquire will find that the school board president is Charles J. Whipple, a Republican business man. The vice-president is William B. Traynor, ditto.

The city council which "capitulated" on the budget acted unanimously on a motion by Ald. Nicholas J. Bohling (7th), Republican leader of the council. The motion was seconded by Ald. Roy E. Olin (8th), a Republican. It was "thirded" by Allen A. Freeman (48th), a Republican.

The real "political" part of the story has been conveniently overlooked by the Trib. It neglects to mention that the new superintendent of schools, Herold Hunt (a Republican, incidentally), has blamed Gov. Green for the plight of the school board and the increase in taxes. Gov. Green has refused to give Illinois' local schools as much aid as other states give their schools. Gov. Green has said Chicago taxpayers can afford to pay higher real estate taxes for upkeep of schools.

The Trib also missed the point of the council's short-lived rebellion. Nearly all councilmen were for increasing the teachers' pay. Some earnestly believed the budget appropriations for building might be trimmed. But there was an undercurrent attempt to embarrass and sabotage the work of the new "reform" school administration by some of the old-time political bosses. They resent the fact ward committeemen and other big shots no longer swing weight in the school system.

The new superintendent of schools and the school board are trying to give the taxpayers a better educational system. On Friday approval was given seven new top school officials who will help Hunt "clean house." An attempt by three "old time" board members to delay the appointments was knocked down by the other independent board members.

President Whipple, Supt. Hunt and all who are helping them need encouragement and support of all citizens and organizations interested in making Chicago a better place in which to live and rear families.

Students "Burn" Constitution

A thousand students gathered in freezing weather on the snow-swept campus of the University of Oklahoma last week. Some of them were dressed as mourners. A co-ed held a copy of the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution.

She touched a match to it and "cremated" the paper. Speeches were made explaining that the students took this method to protest against the state of Oklahoma's refusal to allow Negro students to attend their tax-supported "public" university.

The Fourteenth Amendment reads in part: "No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States." The students believe the state of Oklahoma by its segregation law has abridged the right of Negro citizens to the privileges of equal education and opportunity.

The "mourners" at the unusual ceremony sent the ashes of the 14th amendment to President Truman.

The demonstration by American youth is an encouraging sign that some headway against old prejudices can be made in the South. It was brought on by refusal of the university to admit a young Negro woman to the law school. The U. S. Supreme Court ruled that the state must give her educational facilities equal to those enjoyed by white students.

It specified this should be done "immediately." The state thereupon set up a separate law school for Negroes in Oklahoma City. It's questionable whether this school is "equal" to that of the State U.

The white students who demonstrated are willing to attend classes with Negroes. They are closer to the "problem" than the lawmakers of Oklahoma. Because they have studied ancient and modern history and they want their government to be perfect, they realize the truth of the saying by a famous lawmaker who lived 2,500 years ago:

"That is the most perfect government under which a wrong to the humblest is an affront to all."

His name was Solon. Present day legislators are sometimes called "solons" in his remembrance. But those who allow segregation laws to stay in their state statutes do not deserve the title.

STRICTLY POLITICAL

Milburn P. Akers

After the battle

(Second of two columns on after effects of the "Battle of Athens")

ATHENS, Tenn.

The Battle of Athens over, McMinn County World War II veterans set out, after the manner of good military men, to consolidate their gains.

Akers

They had smashed a strongly entrenched political machine--one that employed armed thugs to steal elections. They had, on that Aug. 1, 1946, day, when the Battle of Athens took place, centered the nation's attention on the possible role of the ex-GI in things political.

So, when they installed their candidates in the red brick courthouse that stands in the center of the city square, some thought the campaign was over. But to older and wiser heads, the Battle of Athens was only a battle; one battle in a long and continuing campaign for good government, the democracy for which McMinn County lads had fought, both overseas and in the pitched engagement at the county jail that election night.

There came into being, as a result, an organization known as the McMinn County Good Government League.

The league, organized on a community basis, and governed by a directorate representing every area in the county, adopted this creed, and, what's more, is making it work in McMinn County:

1. Self-government is man's greatest privilege and most difficult task.
2. The government of the United States is man's greatest achievement in government.
3. To cherish it and protect it is the high privilege and patriotic duty of every American citizen.
4. The security and perpetuity of our way of life depend on our ability and willingness to make democracy work.
5. Local units of government form a necessary foundation for state and national government.
6. Political corruption and abuses in local government tend to destroy public confidence in all government, and threaten the permanence of our democracy.
7. Public office is a high honor and sacred trust.
8. Individuals are chosen for public service because others have confidence in their integrity and ability to perform specified tasks satisfactorily.
9. Acceptance of an office and salary implies acceptance of responsibility for personally performing the tasks of that office to the fullest extent of the officer's time and talents.
10. Failure to perform those tasks to the best of one's ability by devoting his full time and talent thereto is a breach of public trust.
11. The use of public office for any selfish purpose or private gain beyond the compensation legally provided is a betrayal of public confidence.

The Good Government League, with an annual budget of $6,000, is keeping tab on all county affairs, reporting to residents by press, radio and pamphlets. When an official deviates from that creed it so informs the public. Two of the GIs who took county office as a result of the Battle of Athens have already felt its blasts. As a result of its efforts, a county manager, with controls over purchases and expenditures, has been created; other changes in governmental structure are contemplated; more money is being found for schools.

Democracy, restored in McMinn County by overseas veterans who fought for it, is beginning to work in this East Tennessee community, long the bailiwick of a ruthless political machine which exploited its people.

Eleanor Roosevelt Taxes and Inflation

Hyde Park. -- In spite of all protests from Democrats, the Republicans in the House are putting through their particular tax-cut bill.

From the table released by Rep. Harold Knutson, sponsor of the bill, it would look as though, on a percentage basis, the low-income groups would get the greatest reduction.

Roosevelt

For instance, under the present law a married couple with two children pays $76 on a $2,400 income. Under the new bill they would pay nothing, so their percentage of reduction would be 100 per cent. A married couple with two children and an income of $100,000 now pays $62,301. Under the new bill, they would pay $44,224. This is a 29 per cent reduction.

However, with inflation the way it is at present and with prices of food so high, the $76 saved on the $2,400 income would be swallowed up without the family noticing the difference. On the other hand, the family with the $100,000 income always was able to pay for the necessities even at inflation prices, and their tax reduction would mean they could have a good many added luxuries.

If, coupled with this reduction, there were a real program for stopping inflation and a global view of what is needed abroad -- not a niggardly effort to try to get by as cheaply as possible, without regard to the ultimate effect on recovery in European countries -- then I would feel some confidence in the long-range fiscal policies of the Republican Party.

There is one great advantage in having the executive branch of the government controlled by one political party while the legislative branch is controlled by the other. It puts clear-cut responsibility on both parties. The executive branch is responsible for the measures it proposes, but the legislative branch clearly carries the responsibility for the measures it passes or rejects. Therefore, in a time like this, one is able to assess responsibility more truly than at any other time.

While the Republican Party may think that the country is not watching it, that is an unwise supposition. It may think there is not enough intelligence among the people to watch the results of this division of powers, or to know what each branch of the government stands for, and then to decide where the best chance lies for greater consideration of the real needs of the people, both at home and abroad, time alone can give the answer.

Samuel Grafton

A question machine

THE INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS MACHINES CORP. has devised a new electronic calculator which solves problems faster than mathematicians can think them up. You crack your head for two or three years, formulating a problem, and I.B.M.'s new calculator spits out the answer in a couple of seconds, sneering electronically while you try to compose yourself.

Grafton

But for some reason I find I.B.M.'s new gadget, with its 12,500 vacuum tubes, operated from a console like an organ, vaguely alarming. It seems too much like a symbol of our time, geared for producing the most precise and beautifully-tooled answers to questions which nobody knows quite how to formulate.

Maybe what we need is a machine that will ask intelligent questions. I.B.M.'s apparatus, right now, is working out the exact position of the moon for every six hours through a period of 200 years. In doing so it solves, every seven minutes, an equation which would take 300 pages to print. But surely doubt about the precise position of the moon is not the anxiety which keeps the world awake these nights, and tossing.

And our age, after all, is rich in answers that don't seem to help us very much. Four is the sum of two and two, and D.D.T. for bugs, and universal military training ... for what? Almost everybody says universal military training is the answer, but what question does it answer?

* * *

COME, I.B.M., don't you have an attachment that will allow us to feed an answer into your machine, so that we can see whether an accurate question comes out? Universal military training is perhaps the answer to: How can we protect ourselves against sudden attack? But somewhere, back of that, must be another question, having to do with how we managed to get into a situation involving fear of attack, and how the people of this world can arrange to live as friends and brothers, a big uneasy question, very hard to formulate, and embarrassing to wrestle with, while the speedy answer machines of our age lounge and wait.

Let's make a military union of all the nations of this world which hate Russia. Well, that's an answer. But what was the question?

And so we shudder, longing for peace, but not knowing even how to ask for it, until finally, in quiet desperation, we beg the answer machine to tell us where is fancy bred, in the heart or in the head, or how does the moon stand? It is not what we want to know, exactly, but it is the best we can frame up to keep the apparatus busy.

Paul Bunyan Stassen

EVERY AMERICAN BOY who wants to be President, and all parents who want their boys to be President, would do well to ponder the saga of a fellow who is touring the frozen byways of New England, in the dead of winter, on such a quest for that high office--the saga of Paul Bunyan Stassen.

Could your darling, once grown to manhood, follow a routine like this?

Travel 5,400 miles by airplane through the West and South, making two or three speeches a day, and being nice to countless politicians? Spend thereafter two days before a senatorial investigating committee where another fellow, a big guy, too, keeps jumping up and shouting "liar" in his face? Then, at midnight, all worn out, have to listen to that stern disciplinarian among politicians, Sen. Taft, tell him to keep out of his preserves?

Then catch a late train to New York, account of Sen. Taft, and get only a few snatches of sleep. Then, that night, after talking with politicians all day, catch a train loaded with newspaper correspondents who ask a lot of questions.

Then, get up next morning to find the train plugging along late, between forbidding snowbanks, and no diner to get a cup of coffee. Then

Stokes

THEN COMES the regular routine that he has followed for many, many months as he bounces around over the country trying to be President.

Always a press conference with local newspapermen. Then a luncheon with speech afterward, before some local group.

Afterward our hero submits himself to questions from the audience, as he does, too, after night meetings.

arrive finally in the white wilderness of Vermont, at a junction, and step out into an atmosphere cooled down to 12 below zero.

Paul Bunyan (Harold) Stassen did all that. But only a starter.

New England folks, rooted in the town meeting tradition, like this free-for all discussion. People everywhere like it, according to those who have traveled the length and breadth of the land with Paul Bunyan Stassen. It's a good routine. Other presidential candidates might take a tip. Incidentally, such a performance always prompts in the audience a contrast with another candidate named Dewey who never unbends that way.

After luncheon come conferences with politicians, another press conference, a reception, dinner and night meeting, dictation of speeches for the next day, numberless details and arrangements.

Can't there be some better way to make a living?

Tell your boy to think it over.

At the Moment

"MY WEDDING hat is a Sally Victor bonnet that looks like a big cloud," wires Jean Enzinger, whose marriage to Robert Bach takes place this week end in New York. "My dress is French blue with satin pumps dyed to match. I'm carrying my new mother-in-law's lace wedding kerchief and white orchids. Bob is writer-producer of the Duke Ellington show, and our pre-nuptial parties are predominately radio, the last one being a buffet supper Wednesday night chez Pea Wain and Andre Baruch who are 'Mr. and Mrs. Music' to their disc jockey audience. Guest list includes Henry Morgan, Zero Mostel, Mel Torme, Hugh Martin and Nancy Walker of 'Look Ma, I'm Dancing' and so on."

BLEST IS THE BRIDE

Down in Palm Beach, Susie Morris is having final fittings on the dress she'll wear as Conrad Harris' Valentine's Day bride. Connie is going down on the 10th, and parties begin immediately. With the Florida cold wave over, much of the entertaining can be out of doors. "The weather is gorgeous," Susie bulletins. "Full moon-night jasmine-balmy SUN."

One party that depends upon sunshine is the buffet luncheon and splash planned by Mrs. Grant Spear and her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Rooney, (Bobby Carr's aunt and cousin).

After the rehearsal on Friday, the 13th, the bride's mother, Mrs. Chester H. Morris, is taking the wedding party to the Everglades Club to dinner—a special occasion at the club because Fray and Fraggioni are playing duo pianos there that night. After a honeymoon, somewhere in Florida, the newly-weds will be at home in Chicago, I-r-r-r.

WAUDS TO WEDDING

The Morrison Wauds will go east this week for the wedding on Saturday of the late Dr. Sydney Waud's widow, Isabel Morris Waud, and Alfred N. Beadleston, mayor of Shrewsbury, N. J. Dr. Waud's parents, the Ernest F. Wauds are in Florida and neither is well enough to make the journey to Shrewsbury, but Isabel and her bridegroom will stop off on their way to Nassau to visit them. After their honeymoon, the Beadlestons will be at home at his Broadmeadow Farm near Shrewsbury.

PARTY ROUND

Cocktails at Arthur Cummings' apartment this afternoon inaugurate another week of party-going for Kyle Adams and Bill Carney, whose wedding on Saturday is the social event of the week. On Wednesday night Dave Peck is entertaining for them before the Roy Carneys' dinner dance at the Racquet Club. Friday night is the one evening there is NO cocktail party; the time before the bridal dinner will be taken up by rehearsals with Father Edward J. Mullaly, pastor of Old Saint Mary's who will perform Saturday's ceremony in the Robert McCormick Adamses' Lake View Ave. apartment.

Pin-ups

Plan on the importance of colorful, small costume jewelry for spring. The ever-important story of individualizing your costume with jewelry writes a new chapter with a scatter-size pin series.

You will pose pins at unexpected positions and in new numbers for a novel jewelry touch. The new designs are delicate and jeweled with pseudo turquoise, amethysts, pale sapphires, emeralds, topaz and rubies. Mauve tones shading from the light to the dark amethyst shades are key colors in these jewelry pieces.

"Pin-afore Pin-Ups" titles the new double-header pin by Robert shown in the sketch. One jewelled end slides off, then up and down on the stick pin and fastens where you wish... the other end is intact. Either two colored stones or three or five are used alone or together with pearls against a gold filigree background. There are matching earrings.

Butterflies will flit on the tailored shoulder of your suit, on your scarfs or at the waist of your more formal gowns.

You will wear a double-header pin in your hat or on your suit jacket pocket, or a pair of them on your lapel.

Castlecliff, known for his ability to design replicas of heirloom pieces at amazingly low prices, features butterflies for the new season. An enchanting butterfly set with varied colored stones are shown in the photograph.

MONDAY MUSINGS: Didja know that an open-crowned black taffeta cart-wheel designed by MILLE ILYA ROCHET of Chicago won first honors over toppers entered by N.Y. designers JOHN FREDRIC and WALTER FLORELL in the recent Miami Millinery Guild show at the Florida resort's swank Roney-Plaza hotel? ### HOW THEY GOT STARTED DEPT.

Until BETTY BRADLEY, the International Harvester beauty, spent a summer vacation at Providence, R.I., she was just another smiling-eyed University of Illinois co-ed who hadn't any very definite ideas about what she wanted to do after Commencement Day.

But that summer she dropped into a Providence manufacturing plant to earn some extra money, and was offered a job in the laboratory. She became so interested in metallurgy that when she returned to Urbana that fall she changed her studies preparatory to becoming a metallurgist.

Today, in consequence, she works with tiny steel cross-sections and a research metallograph (combination microscope and camera) at International Harvester's Manufacturing Research Center, examining the microstructure of steel.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: My wife and I have been married 13 years and have two daughters, one 12 and the other 10.

Before the war I earned a good living for my family and my wife never worked out but while I was in the Army, she got a job in a war plant.

Now the war is over and I am back at my old job, making a comfortable living, have bought a home and have it nicely furnished. I am anxious for my wife to give up her position and let me support the family, as I am amply able to do. I feel that it is her duty to make a home for the children and me, but she refused to do so. She is now a clerk in a grocery.

I love my wife and children very much, but am afraid that if she keeps on with her job and continues to neglect her home and family, our marriage will end in divorce. Can you advise me on this situation? I am at my wits end.

CONFUSED

ANSWER: The only valid reason for a wife working outside of her home is that her husband does not make enough money to support it, or that he is so penurious that he does the house-keeping money out nickel by nickel and never gives her a cent for her own. No woman can be blamed if, under these circumstances, she hangs her home door shut and gets a job by which she can be financially independent.

These drawbacks do not appear to exist in your case. You are able and willing to support your wife. You offer her a good home and she refuses it, either because she wants more money to spend, or gets a kick out of having her own pocketbook, or because she likes the excitement of working in crowds.

Many other women, like your wife, who tasted working during the war, have refused to give up their jobs and go home to their husbands and children. This is one of the main causes of juvenile delinquency. No woman can make a real home when she is giving most of her time, strength and interest to her job. Nor can she be an adequate wife and mother when her ambitions, thoughts and plans are centered in her work instead of her children, and when she seldom knows where her children are or what they are doing.

It takes all a woman's heart, brain, patience and diplomacy to run a house properly, make her husband happy and rear children into fine men and women. There is no arguing the question. The undomestic and unmaternal woman never should marry.

All need care to be fit for job

By Dr. Morris Fishbein

When we consider the physical fitness of a man or woman, we want to find out "fit for what." The fitness of Joe Louis for a championship fight is quite different from the fitness of a school teacher to teach her class.

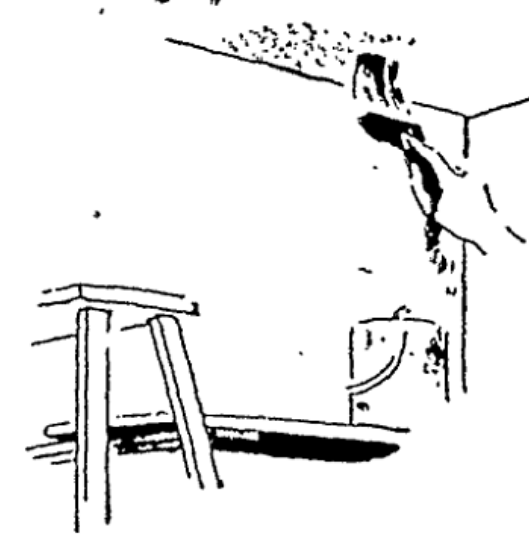

If a child is born with a rupture and the family fails to give attention to its care, that child will be rejected for the army and also for any job that requires heavy lifting. It is not difficult to operate on a rupture; most patients recover from the operation in eight or 10 days.

Mulled wine a party treat

Any type of celebration is gay when there's a punch bowl nearby. When the weather is cold a spicy bowl of hot mulled wine is a most welcome punch. A mulled, or glow wine, as it is sometimes called, is one of the oldest hospitality beverages. It is made with a red wine such as Claret, Burgundy, a sweet Port or any type which will give the bowl a bright, rubylike color. Serve steaming-hot in a pre-heated bowl with assorted sandwiches, crackers and cheese or popcorn and roasted apples.

HOT MULLED WINE

- 1 cup sugar
- 3 cups boiling water
- 2 bottles Claret wine
- 6 strips lemon peel
- 6 inches stick cinnamon
- 12 whole cloves.

Dissolve sugar in boiling water. Add lemon rind, whole cloves, and stick cinnamon. Boil together for 15 minutes. Strain into double boiler and add wine. Heat piping hot but do not boil. Serve flecked with nutmeg. Serves 10 to 15.

The grand finale of the show will be the traditional parade for which the participants are concocting their most imaginative costumes. A gala luncheon, preceding the show, is being planned by Mrs. W. Stanley Jacob and Mrs. Harold Ray.

The skaters chosen to appear that day include Lila Keogh, Diana Rutherford, Mary Andrews, Ann Morrissey, Debbie Keogh, Mary Farrell, Julie Patton, Susan Jacob and Nancy Smalley.

TODAY'S ROMANTIC news comes from Winnetka, where Mr. and Mrs. Alfred K. Eddy are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Richard Neville of Center Conway, N.H.

Miss Eddy was graduated from Mount Holyoke College after attending the Convent of the Sault au Recollet in Montreal, Can. She studied during the summer at the University of Mexico and for the past year has been executive secretary of the Pan American Council in Chicago.

Mr. Neville attended Deerfield Academy in Massachusetts, the University of Michigan, and was graduated last year from Harvard University. He is the son of the late Edwin L. Neville, former U.S. minister to Siam.

Mrs. Stuart Colnon and her mother, Mrs. Daniel F. McMahon left yesterday for a motor trip to Florida, where they will be staying for a month at the Breakers.

Mrs. Charles K. Foster is the new president of the Woman's Auxiliary Board of the Children's Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Frederic W. Upham is vice president and the rest of the board consists of Mrs. Robert A. Gardner, Mrs. Louis Watermuller, Mrs. James S. Bennington Jr., Mrs. William O. Hunt and Mrs. William B. Greenlee.

Cheese mush - meatless fare

Tomorrow, meatless Tuesday, brings to mind the necessity for planning meals in advance.

Sunday's roast should include leftovers for Monday night dinner. Tuesday takes to a cheese or egg main course casserole or might consist of a vegetable platter. In the latter, be sure to include a lima or baked bean --topped with tomato sauce or catsup. Accompanying vegetables might well be sauteed carrots, celery, green beans and sweet potato or squash.

The Cabinet Food Committee suggests Fried Cheese Mush for dinner tomorrow evening.

This dish combines water, corn meal, salt, onion and grated cheese. You will note that 1½ cups of grated cheese are called for. This results in a dish high in protein--so from a nutritional standpoint, the family is getting its share of a well-balanced dinner.

Serve the slices of fried cheese mush as you would slices of meat --with a sauce if you like.

FRIED CHEESE MUSH

2 cups water

½ cup, coarse corn meal teaspoon salt
Grated onion, if desired
1½ cups grated cheese
Flour
Fat drippings

Heat the water to boiling in a pan that can later be set into or over a larger pan of boiling water. Add salt and stir in the corn meal slowly. Cook several minutes over direct heat, stirring constantly. Add the onion, put over boiling water, cover, and continue cooking 45 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in the cheese. Pour the hot mush into a loaf pan and cool several hours or until set. Cut into slices about ½ inch thick, sprinkle with flour, and brown on both sides in the drippings. Serves 4.

For the vegetable accompaniment, serve Fried Cheese Mush with cooked and seasoned broccoli or lightly sauteed cabbage. If desired, omit a green vegetable entirely--selecting lima beans instead. In that case, prepare a cabbage slaw or molded vegetable gelatin salad for the accompaniment. Serve fruit cup, or stewed prunes for dessert.

FOOD TIPS: If your household schedule is an unusually busy one, today's meatless recipe may be prepared a day or two in advance of service. Mold the mush as directed; then keep in the refrigerator (covered with waxed paper or a plate) until prior to serving time. Hominy grits or wheat farina may be used instead of corn meal.

If broccoli is selected for the main course, use fresh or frozen--whichever is available at your stores. The lima beans may be canned or frozen. Oranges, grapefruit and apples are fresh fruits that are reasonable in price at the present time. Bits of canned fruit from another meal may be added to the fruit cup for variety. If the budget is tight, select cooked prunes or cooked dried fruits.

Let kitchen solve baby's toy needs

Eight-months-old Bobby has many toys, but of all his toys he likes best mother's wooden spoon with a long handle.

It is perfect for grasping and pounding. Sometimes he wields it like a baton, but most of the time it's a drum stick. He takes delight in the exercise as well as the noise he makes.

The youngster's preference for the spoon is not unusual. Indeed, the toy needs of a baby may be satisfied with articles that come out of the kitchen and pantry.

Give any baby from 6 to 12 months a spoon, an aluminum cup, or both, and he will bang away contentedly. A pot cover is also a safe and practical toy and so are empty spoons strung like a necklace on a string.

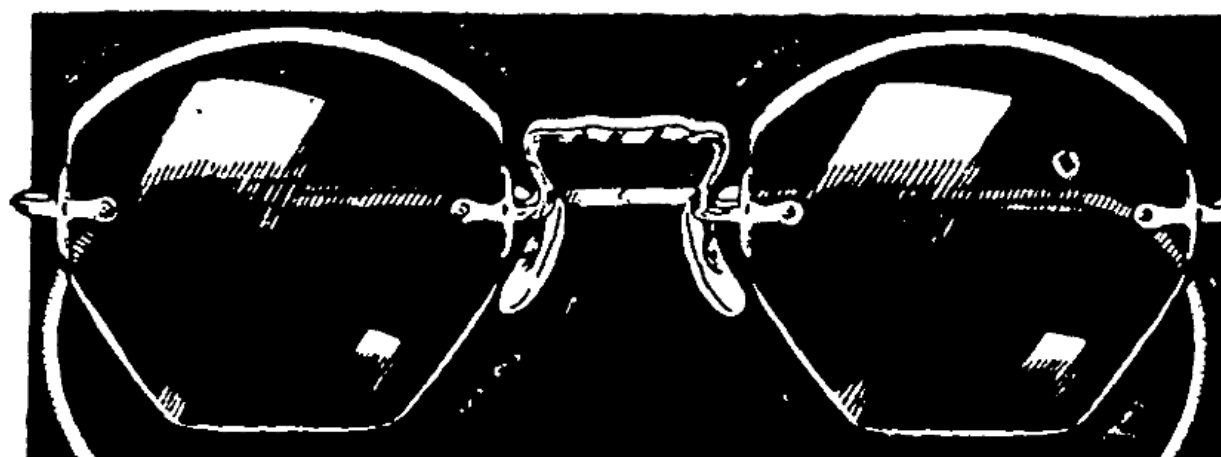

Whatever the article, be sure that it is large enough to be grasped firmly, is unbreakable, has no sharp edges, or paint or dangling parts that may be chewed off.

Another point to remember in the matter of toys for baby is that a plaything serves its purpose only if it keeps baby busy.

An infant surrounded by too many toys cannot concentrate. The toy in his hand soon ceases to be interesting. He will reach for a second, third and a fourth object, too distracted to know what to do with any of them.

If you want baby to learn to amuse himself, give him just one toy at a time and leave him alone with it.

Chicagoans fly to Wright funeral

Headed by W. A. Patterson, president of United Air Lines, a group of Chicagoans were to take off today for Dayton, Ohio, in a special plane to attend the funeral services for Orville Wright, who gave "wings to the world" 45 years ago at Kitty Hawk, N. C.

Co-inventor with his deceased brother Wilbur of the world's first successful "flying machine," the Wright brothers conducted numerous glider experiments over the Indiana sand dunes in cooperation with the famed glider expert, Octave Chanute.

Before opening a bicycle shop in Dayton, the Wrights edited and published a weekly newspaper for more than a year. When they finally opened the bicycle shop, they "sweated out" and blueprinted the first heavier-than-air machine.

Aviation experts declare that even today there is less than 1 per cent error in the principles of aerodynamics developed by the famous brothers. Many of their original features, such as the tricycle landing gear.

Interest of the Wright brothers in aviation was fired when their father, Bishop Milton Wright of the United Brethren Church, brought home a toy helicopter. The Wright brothers' plane is a "lineal" descendant of that toy with two spinners and rubber-band-power propeller.

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

HOLLYWOOD--The Johnston Office is buried under an avalanche of communiques from church groups, etc., written to express indignant disapproval of the Lana Turner-Bob Topping goings-on... Southern California drouth has hurt movie-makers, too; at least five pictures are being held up by the lack of snow in the mountains... Expect Gene Kelly and Eddie Bracken to co-star in a filmography based on the life stories of the song-writing team, Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby... Ha. Hillary Brooke's suit for divorce from hubby Jack Voglin, now due for filing, has been held up by the couple's inability to agree on custody of their German sheep dog... Wotziz about Mrs. Henry Fonda inheriting a huge fortune from a New York relative?... Maria Montez is undergoing a series of blood transfusions to combat anemia.

If you want to see a newspaper reporter honestly portrayed (probably for the first time in screen history) see Jimmy Stewart in "Call Northside 777"... Feuding: Joan Crawford, Bette Davis and Ida Lupino, each of whom wants to play the top role in "A Streetcar Named Desire"... PREVIEWS: Pic of the week: 20th Century-Fox's "Call Northside 777" (Jimmy Stewart-Richard Conte-Lee J. Cobb-Helen Walker). "Documentary drama" with a wallop in every scene; put it high on your "must see" list. Recommended: Universal-International's Disappointing: Paramount's "Albuquerque" (Randolph Scott-Barbara Britton-George "Gabby" Hayes). Strictly contrived, and a weak contrivance. Best performance: Jimmy Stewart in "Call Northside 777."

Pitching Horseshoes

He could handle 4-legged cats

By Billy Rose

I once met a banker in a cageful of lions and tigers. I know what you're saying. There goes Rose again with one of his trick openings, trying to bamboozle us into reading his daily mishmash.

Well, mebbe so, but it's a true story, every adjective of it, and if you'll let me get a column in edgewise, I'll be glad to give you the details.

It happened back in 1934 when I was putting on that saga of sawdust and spangles called "Jumbo" at the New York Hippodrome. I needed an elephant for the star role. A fellow who had sold me some monkeys told me to look up a Mr. Charles

Billy Rose

Beale in Oceanside, Long Island.

According to the monkey man, this Mr. Beale was quite a fellow. From Monday to Friday, he was vice-president of the Chase National Bank and also senior vice-president of the conservative investment firm of Harris, Forbes and Co. Saturdays and Sundays he devoted his time to training wild animals.

At the house, a fattish version of a Wodehouse butler told me Mr. Beale was working out with the wild animals in a cage back of the garage. I walked around and watched the amateur Clyde Beatty for a few minutes. And he was no amateur. He handled the whip and chair like a pro, and he had the big cats slinking around as if they had guilt complexes. "What can I do for you, young man?" he said when the beasts were all up on their inverted tubs.

"Want to sell, lease or rent an elephant?" I called through the bars.

"Afraid I can't do anything for you," said the banker after we had shaken hands. "I'm down to six elephants, and I like to have at least that many around. They relax me."

THE FINANCIER invited me to have lunch with him, and after lunch showed me through his menagerie.

On my way back to town, I got to wondering what his private life was like. What sort of women, for instance, would appeal to a millionaire who hobnobbed with lions and panthers?

A few years later, the front pages of the tabloids told me. It appeared that Mr. Beale had hired a vaudeville performer named Nana Bates to attend to his correspondence and perform other secretarial duties. He had seen this lady do a tiger dance in a local theater and had been impressed by her qualifications.

According to the tabloids, Mr. Beale had gotten along fine with his secretary until he sent her to Hollywood on business. During her absence, he had made the mistake of hiring another actress-stenographer named Eileen "Paddy" O'Hara. When the tiger woman returned unexpectedly and found pretty Paddy on the porch, all heck broke loose. The two shorthand experts indulged in some fancy biting, scratching, hair-pulling and floor-rolling. A neighbor a quarter of a mile away heard the screams and telephoned the Oceanside police.

MOST OF THE later rounds were staged in court where it was revealed that Mr. Beale had deeded his Oceanside property to the tiger woman. Paddy, it was charged, had absent-mindedly removed $1,165 from her boss' private account. Finally the court told the banker to make up his mind which secretary he wanted. Mr. Beale chose the tiger woman.

While these legal shenanigans were going on, I happened to be driving through Oceanside. I couldn't resist calling on the embattled banker.

It started drizzling as I drove through the big iron gates. I found Mr. Beale sitting on a stool in the lion's cage. The big cats were on their tubs, and seemed unusually quiet. The amateur trainer's face was all scratched up and there were bits of court plaster on his neck and hands.

"What happened?" I asked. "Did one of the cats take a poke at you?"

The financier nodded. "Yes," he said. "One of the two-legged ones."

"What's the idea of sitting out here in the rain?" I asked him.

"Frankly," he sighed, "this is the only place on the estate where I feel perfectly safe."

Kup's column

Irv Kupcinet

IT IS STRICTLY coincidental and with no political implications, B. and K. authorities report, that "The Roosevelt Story" was booked into the Garrick theater immediately following "The Bad Men of Missouri."... President Truman and daughter Margaret may appear in Philadelphia at the same time this summer. Frank Palumbo, the Philly cafe owner, is attempting to sign Margaret for a singing engagement in July, when the Democratic National convention will be held there. Her illustrious father undoubtedly will appear there to accept his party's nomination... Comedian Henry Youngman wires he no longer has to tell jokes for a living -- he now sells porch furniture to the Trumans.

AS SOON as Spike Jones, who calls himself the "dandruff in long hair music," heard Dr. Artur Rodzinski had been fired by the Chicago Symphony orchestra, he wired the famed maestro an invitation to serve as guest conductor of his "musical deprecation" band on his Friday night radio show. So far, Dr. Rodzinski hasn't accepted... Charles Luckman, youthful president of Lever Bros., unlike many big businessmen, is cheerful about the future. He has just ordered a $40,000,000 expansion program for the American portion of the worldwide firm. In the year and half since Luckman was upped to president, Lever Bros. has hit an all-time high for gross business.

GEORGE JESSEL was a visitor over the week-end, and, according to Jimmie Savage, he's burned up at the police department. The 10 PM curfew kept all Georgie's girl friends at home.

Jessel just closed an engagement in Miami Beach, where a group of entertainers was sitting around one night, listening to an old time actor pan everybody in show business. Each time a star was mentioned, the old timer would blast him to a fare-thee-well. Jessel finally decided to trap the sour-puss. He dreamed up a phony name and asked: "Do you remember Joe Schmo?"... The old timer thought for a few seconds and then replied, "No, but I knew his brother -- and of all the low-down, contemptible, no-good, jerks...."

JESSEL, the nation's No. 1 toastmaster, recently finished an album of records, suitable for all occasions of a person's life -- from the cradle to the grave.

The first record is a speech to be played at the christening; the second, at the confirmation; third, at his engagement; fourth, at his marriage; fifth, at his 25th wedding anniversary, and sixth, at the funeral.

George Jessel

THE restaurant sale of cheesecake was delivered a body blow the other day when the health department ruled that the delicacy no longer may be displayed in the open because of bacterial reasons. (The greatest catastrophe to hit our city since Pollack and Neelson lost their lease on State St.)... The cake now must be kept in containers and brought out only when ordered by customers... Sid Luckman, the Bear star, his frau and three kiddies arrived from New York yesterday to establish their permanent residence here. In addition to his footballing, Luckman also is an automobile magnate on the West Side.

THE RITZ brothers, en route to New York to help a fourth brother, George, celebrate his 25th wedding anniversary, paused here over the week-end and phoned Susan Omsky, the 13-year-old girl who lost her left leg in a train accident. Susie excitedly reported she expects to leave Jackson Park hospital for her home next week. Latest movie stars to respond to our request for autographed pictures for Susie are Joan Fontaine, Joan Bennett, Tim Holt, Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman... Belated wedding anniversary (29) greetings to the James A Harts. He's veepee of the Ambassador hotels.

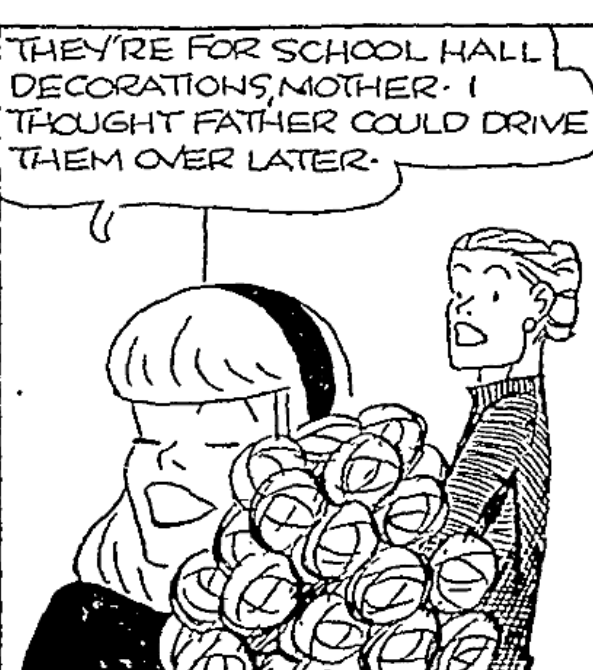

OUR prediction that Lt. Gov. Hugh Cross would drop out of the race for governor (and how the political smarties laughed at the time!) was confirmed over the week-end. And Cross substantiated the reason -- lack of funds. He had been promised $100,000 by his backers, who failed to come through. Louis Cowan, the radio producer (Quiz Kids, RFD America, etc.) soon will launch a new network show, called "Stop the Music." (Starring, no doubt, Jimmy Petrillo.) Personal to Dale Harrison -- Thanks for those nice words the other day, chum. And happy landings.

Plan to Develop Latin America

In the interests of "real and lasting progress" in the western hemisphere, the national foreign trade council yesterday put forward a six-point program for maximum utilization of private capital in Latin American development.

The council and the Council for Inter-American Co-operation, an affiliate, made their plea in a 22-page booklet put out in advance of the ninth international conference of American states, which will open March 30 at Bogota, Colombia.

OBJECTIVES TOLD

Points in the proposed program to facilitate foreign investment in Latin America, included: freedom for citizens of any Western Hemisphere country to enter any other, except for ordinary passport and visa requirements; the right of any foreign company to choose its workers on no other basis except their value to the company; the right of such enterprise to acquire property necessary for its operations; protection of foreign enterprise against expropriation, seizure of nationalization; equal treatment under laws of the country; and freedom of access to transportation facilities.

LOANS DISCUSSED

The councils emphasized that intergovernmental loans "except for genuine self-liquidating projects . . . place heavy burdens on debtor countries since funds must be raised through additional taxation to cover interest charges and amortization of capital" and added that "real and lasting progress must come through the investment of private risk capital which will strengthen the economy of the recipient country by creating employment, increasing production, augmenting revenues and strengthening currencies . . ."

This in turn produces additional purchasing power and boosting standards of living.

Co-operation among Western Hemisphere nations to create a more favorable atmosphere for foreign capital would bring about "an era of unparalleled progress" for the western world, the councils predicted.

Walter E. Heller Earnings Steady

Walter E. Heller & Co. yesterday reported net earnings for 1947 of $659,957, equivalent to $1.43 a share on the common stock, compared with $650,311 for 1946.

U. S. Industrial Chemicals, Inc., had net income for the nine months ended Dec. 31 of $1,768,511, or $3.54 a capital share, against $2,432,867 and $4.87 a share in the corresponding period of 1946.

England Ships Gold

Washington, Feb. 1 (UP)--The U. S. imported $99,374,000 of gold in the week ended Jan. 14, the Commerce Department announced today. Largest amount, $60,927,000 came from Great Britain. The Union of South Africa sent in $24,788,000 worth and the Argentine $12,009,000.

Advertising News

Hotpoint Maps Campaign To Meet New Conditions

By Edward Spear

An advertising program geared to meet changing economic conditions and at the same time planned to be the most aggressive and extensive in the history of Hotpoint, Inc. was outlined by James J. Nance, president of Hotpoint, before a luncheon meeting of the Chicago Federated Advertising Club at the Morrison Hotel.

All of the firm's advertising is built on the theme "Everybody's Pointing to Hotpoint," Nance said. Schedules are prepared for large city newspapers to be released as appliances become available and will run along with present consistent magazine advertisements.

The latter are designed to cover the mass market, shelter group, women's service group, farm field and architects and builders.

"We realize that industry must tighten up for the competitive days ahead," Nance said. "Advertising will help pave the way for product acceptance. Production no longer is the main problem, rather it is distribution and the ability to sell."

Business News in Brief

Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp. yesterday announced two administrative changes in the management personnel of this U. S. Steel subsidiary's Gary Sheet and Tin mill. They are the promotion of John A. Schwer, superintendent of production planning at the plant, to become assistant to the general superintendent and the appointment of Joseph M. Greer as his successor in production planning.

Stanley D. Wronski, formerly property valuation officer for the Chicago Housing Authority, has been named real estate appraiser for the Pullman Trust & Savings Bank.

DAUER

Household Finance Corp. announces the appointment of Dr. Ernst A. Dauer as director of a new department of consumer credit studies. He will be in charge of research and editorial work and liaison with economists and institutions in the general field of consumer credit. Dr. Dauer has been principal economist on the staff of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Arthur J. Weinert, formerly with Mitchell Hutchins & Co. and Bache & Co., has joined Francis I. duPont & Co. here as a registered representative.

Style clinics analyzing 1948 fashions and their merchandising potentialities will highlight the one-week apparel market which opens in the Merchandise Mart today. The gift show, china, glass and pottery market will also open today at the Mart and will run for two weeks.

The Radio Division of Westinghouse Electric Corp. announced its 1948 advertising and promotion program will be led by a $1,000,000 newspaper campaign using 177 newspapers in 159 cities.

Earl J. Goris, formerly with General Electric X-Ray Corp., has been appointed advertising manager of the Dearborn Chemical Co.

The $1,500,000 consumer advertising campaign of the flour milling industry, which was postponed last September because of the international food situation, will probably be launched next September, the Millers' National Federation announced.

An accelerated advertising campaign scheduled for 262 newspapers in 187 markets throughout the country has been released by Seagram Distillers Corp.

A "Crusade for Children" advertising campaign has been launched by the Advertising Council in support of the work of the UN and 26 social welfare organizations raising money to feed millions of starving children around the globe.

Don McGee, formerly with Kenyon & Eckhardt, has joined the Chicago office of Campbell-Mithun, Inc. to handle the Gold Seal Glass Wax account.

With J. Walter Thompson Co. reaching a record $103,000,000, and five other agencies passing $50,000,000, the combined volume of 37 advertising agencies which billed $10,000,000 or more in 1947, totaled about $939,000,000, Advertising Age reported.

The wine and liquor division of Park & Tilford has launched the biggest advertising campaign in the company's 108-year-old history. Copy will appear in 200 daily newspapers and 20 national magazines.

Steel Production Cut by Icy Grip of Old Man Winter

Steel production dropped one point last week to 95.5 per cent of capacity largely because of the icy grip of old man winter, the magazine Steel said yesterday.

Steel said the drop in production was due largely to the shortages of gas and oil for industrial use and continued material shortages. Ice conditions in the rivers at Pittsburgh also threatened to seriously curtail production if prolonged, the magazine said, because of the delay in shipments of coal. The same situation extended to plants in Youngstown, Ohio, it added.

The trade journal said a continuing shortage of scrap and pig iron was handicapping operations at mills and foundries, with the latter anticipating little improvement in pig iron over the coming weeks.

154 New Firms Locate in Area

A total of 154 concerns made arrangements during 1947 to locate new plants in Chicago and northern Illinois, according to a summary by the territorial information department of the Commonwealth Edison Co., Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, Western United Gas and Electric Co. and Illinois Northern Utilities Co. The territory served by the companies and covered by the survey, embraces Chicago and 600 other cities and towns in the northern part of the state.

Of the total of 154 new plants, 92 are to be operated by newly organized concerns, 54 are branch plants of companies with their main establishments in other territories and eight are plants being transferred to this territory from some other part of the country. Of the 154 new plants, 33 are to be located in the city of Chicago and 121 in other sections of the area.

A widely diversified variety of products will be manufactured by the new plants, ranging from aluminum boats to zinc die-castings.

One new plant will employ 200 persons producing relays and electrical controls. Another will need 120 employees to make water pump seals and synthetic rubber products.

Among the 54 branch plants is one at Streator where ultimately 300 will be employed in the blending and packaging of tea.

Jewel Tea Volume For Year Up 48 Pct.

Jewell Tea Co. Inc., reported yesterday that sales through its retail food stores and home service routes totalled $130,477,490 during the fiscal year 1947, and increase of 48 per cent over the $88,237,518 reported the previous year. There were 53 weeks in the fiscal year 1947 and, excluding the extra week, sales were 45 per cent over 1946.

Cigar Sales Decline

Cigar sales to United States wholesalers declined to 5,624,763,479 last year from 5,836,344,052 in 1946, the Cigar Institute of America reported.

Plant Output Renews Climb

Industrial production in mid-January almost fully recovered to the high levels of previous months after a year-end sinking spell, the National Association of Purchasing agents reported yesterday.

High activity was reported by 58 per cent of the purchasing agents, 31 per cent noted increases over previous highs, while 11 per cent reported lower volume.

"Competition continues to grow," the association said. "Revision of large long-term orders into smaller units is reported."

CAUTION PREVAILS

"Extreme caution still prevails as more resistance to high prices is being felt.

"Uncertainty and confusion continue to center on the effects of the European aid program, new wage demands and proposed government controls."

The purchasing agents still hold "the generally optimistic expectation" for good business through the first half of 1948.

The policy of holding industrial inventories to the minimum required for production remains in force, the association continued. Very few reported unbalanced inventories and some viewed them as too low for comfort.

PRICES UNSTABLE

Commenting on buying policy, the association stated: "Maintained high production, coupled with growing price instability, is creating an even more conservative attitude on future coverage."

The association reported continued improvement in worker productivity, and added "There is some strike talk, but nothing concrete has appeared."

Higher Costs Seen In Buyers Market

The approaching buyers' market is expected to bring higher retail operating costs as it will cost more to move merchandise into the hands of consumers who in turn are becoming more discriminating as to quality and workmanship.

This prediction was substantiated by a survey of 70 department store operators in the 11 western states, reports N.H. Comish, professor of business administration, University of Washington, in Dun's Review.

Of the 69 reporting, 35 expect to increase their advertising expenditures, while 41 say that they will allot more money for sales training. Greater expenditures for displays are planned by 44 of the 68 furnishing data; 66 expect to improve their store layouts.

Chatham Reduces Price of Blankets

Elkin, N. C., Feb. 1 (AP)--Chatham Mfg. Co., one of the country's largest producers of blankets, announced today a reduction of $1 in the price of one of its leading wool blankets, bringing the retail price down to the $10.95 prewar level.

O'Connor evens score

Rangers tie Hawks 2 to 2

NEW YORK, Feb. 1 (UP)--A single-handed scoring thrust by Little Buddy O'Connor in the last period enabled the New York Rangers to come from behind and tie the Chicago Black Hawks, 2 to 2, tonight before 15,925 fans at Madison Square Garden.

"Hey, layoff I've got it..."

That's what John Hergis (No. 6) of the Anderson Packers may be shouting to Dick Mechen, (No. 27), Toledo Jeep's center in game last night at Stadium. John Schick (30) stands by. Jeeps win 49-45.

Wolverines risk lead at Ohio State

By Tom Siler

Michigan risks its pace-setting position in the Big Nine basketball race tonight against Ohio State. The Wolverines moved ahead of Wisconsin, defending champion and erstwhile leader, Saturday night with a 53 to 37 victory over Northwestern in the weekend's only conference contest.

Michigan managed this victory at home after losing to the Wildcats in Evanston. At this juncture, the home team has won 20 out of 24 conference games, which indicates the Wolverines will have a fight on their hands tonight at Columbus even though the Buckeyes are sharing the cellar with Northwestern. The Wildcats are likely to suffer another setback tonight when they play Iowa at Iowa City.

Aside from conference play, Kentucky's invasion of Notre Dame holds the spotlight. The Wildcats from the Bluegrass country trampled DePaul Saturday, 68 to 51, with a fearsome exhibition of shooting, hitting 39 per cent of their shots. The Demons hit only 22 per cent against the speedy, hard-driving Kentuckians, who now have won 18 out of 19 games.

After the game Coach Ed Krause of Notre Dame, who scouted the Wildcats, said he would assign Paul Gordon to cover Ralph Beard, put Leo Barnhorst on Wah-Wah Jones and John Foley on Alex Groza. Notre Dame has won eight and lost four.

Loyola, playing in the first part of the Saturday double-header in the Stadium, fell before Oklahoma Aggies, 43 to 35. The Aggies pulled the game out with a strong second half, which netted them 11 points.

New York was trailing, 2 to 1, thanks to some brilliant goal-tending by Emile (The Cat) Francis, the Black Hawks' rookie net minder, when O'Connor came through with his game-tying effort.

He grabbed a loose puck just inside the attacking zone, outsped the Chicago defense to skate in alone on Francis, faked him into a split and then drove the puck between his legs.

It was the eighth tie game of the season for the Rangers, who solidified their position in third place.

The Black Hawks had forged ahead in the last two minutes of the opening period on a fluke goal by Bill Mosienko, who deflected a long do-or-die shot by defenseman Ralph Nattress into the net. The Hawks return to Chicago Tuesday to meet Detroit.

Gene Kessler

King of Ice Clowns

AGAIN THE little funny man from Vienna cakewalks on steel skate blades to furnish mirth for some 20,000 fans at the Stadium on the opening night of THE TIMES All-Star Ice Show.

When he was a young skating blade on the frozen ponds of Vienna, Freddie Trenkler tried the serious competitive figure skating events. He couldn't quite make it as a champion. Then one day he noticed a pair of comedians who could skate as good as he, but they drew all the applause.

"That was for me," says Freddie, as he recalls the incident. "So I started practicing to be funny."

Today Trenkler is the top ice show comedian, and he takes the applause away from the queen of skating ballerinas, Sonja Henie, in her own show.

When we started assembling THE TIMES show cast, Freddie came to us and volunteered his services. A year ago he had performed all three acts from the Henie review in our variety extravaganza.

"That is a worthy cause and a very appreciative audience," said the little funnyman. "I am at your service again."

It so happens that the Sonja Henie schedule will permit Freddie to skate in the charity cast only the first night, Feb. 12.

ARTHUR WIRTZ

Grooms Sonja Successor

afternoon and then amuse the packed Stadium crowd that night. Then they will fly back to Atlanta in time to answer curtain calls Feb. 14.

Still another comedy act will be booked to fill in for Trenkler in the Feb. 13th performance, assuring the high standard of our show both evenings.

AGAIN THIS year, the All-Star cast is studded with brilliant performers. Perhaps none will shine brighter than Carol Lynne, a fixture on the entertainment calendar at swanky St. Regis in New York.

Miss Lynne is the sophisticated ballerina of the frosty stage. For four and one-half years, Arthur M. Wirtz featured Carol at Center Theatre in New York, grooming her to succeed Sonja Henie in his touring road show. But she decided it useless to wait on Sonja's retirement and has been a tremendous success. She comes to THE TIMES show at a time she is rehearsing to open at Roxy Theatre.

Miss Lynne will have plenty of competition for the spotlight and encores the nights of Feb. 12-13, with Jo Ann McGowan, Bobby and Ruby Maxson, Donna Jeanne Pospisil, Richard Dwyer, Geary Steffen and Johnny Jolliffe, the Uksilas and others--plus the Trenkler and Lamb-Ring comedy acts--in featured roles.

STEALING THIS All-Star show will be difficult, even for such a talented skater as Miss Lynne, who often has been described as a combination of Evelyn Chandler and Sonja Henie. This surely is the greatest all-star variety skating cast ever assembled.

Ice capades star joins SUN-TIMES carnival cast

Patti Phillippi in ice show

By Jack McPhaul

When professional ice skate entertainers get together there is often a dispute about the fun-making aspect of their business. There are some who contend that the males have it all over the gals in the difficult business of providing skillful comedy on blades.

Soon there will be an excellent opportunity for the frosted stage devotees to reach their own decision on this intriguing matter. It will come at The SUN-TIMES 10th annual All-Star Ice Show at the Chicago Stadium the evenings of Feb. 12 and 13.

Comedy on Program

For the rib-tickling battle of the sexes you'll find in one corner two of the greatest male comedy sets in the ice skating profession. And over there in the opposite corner you'll see two members of what has been termed the gentler sex who have attained stardom as comedienne on blades.

Today The SUN-TIMES is happy to announce the newest addition to the star-studded cast for the big frolic of skill, daring, beauty and fun on ice.

AN ACROBAT, TOO
A Versatile and Talented Artist

She's Patti Phillippi, featured solo performer in the nationally-known revue "Ice Capades." Patti has been described as a "one girl variety show."

She Dances Too

SUN-TIMES spectators will be given a vivid demonstration of the talents that have won the attractive Patti this laudatory label. In addition to her comedy antics she will demonstrate her ability as a "jitterbug" dancer and further will display her acrobatic technique.

Patti will present her performance both nights. Like all the other stars she is donating her services because the lion's share of the proceeds will benefit hospitalized war veterans.

"Gay 90's" Burlesque

Spectators opening night will see another famed comedienne, Grette Uksila. She and her husband, Bob, will offer a "Gay '90's" burlesque, a feature number of the Sonja Henie revue.

Spear-heading the male comedy numbers opening night will be the internationally-famed Freddie Trenkler,

"tramp" comedian with a great reputation as a show-stealer. Freddie must leave immediately afterward to rejoin the Henie revue. Taking over in his spot Feb. 13 will be the gifted Hal Ring and Kenny Lamb, principal comedians of "Holiday on Ice."

Fischer captures national ice title

St. Paul, Feb. 1 (AP)—George Fischer, Chicago, today won the National Men's Senior speed skating championship by a wide margin, as Lorraine Sabbe, Detroit, took over the senior women's crown by a slim 10-point edge over her nearest competition.

Fischer took first in the one-mile and five-mile events today, as well as second in the 880, for 150 points. Don L. Johnson, his closest challenger, could muster but 70 points with a first in the 880 and a second in the one-mile today to add to his 20 points won yesterday.

Victory margin scant

Miss Sabbe sprawled across the finish line to win the one-mile women's event, that gave her 110 points and a victory over Bernice Melewski, West Allis, Wis., who counted 100 points.

Fischer was one of six winners of North American championships at Alpena, Mich., last week who captured titles in the current national speed skating championships. The national two-day event was a part of St. Paul's annual winter carnival.

Don Hamer, Minneapolis, repeated his North American triumph by amassing 170 points for the intermediate boys crown.

A fellow-townsman, Jim Dardis, did the same in the junior boys division, getting 150 points.

Joan Holm wins

Dona Wang, Minneapolis, North American intermediate girl's titlist, and Aldrina Label, Lake Placid, N.Y., divided the national championship with 60 points each.

Two other repeaters were Karen Mattson of St. Paul in the juvenile girls division and diminutive, dark-haired Nancy Ann Viner, Pittsfield, Mass., in the midget girls group.

Other winners of championships today were Tom Miller, Minneapolis, in the juvenile boys and Joan Holm, Chicago, in the junior girls.

Bowlers covet SUN-TIMES pins

"Your Achievement Awards sure have caused a great improvement in bowling....Everybody wants to win a medal."

Just such comments as this one, included in a letter from Bertha Wheelan, Secretary of the Archer-Kedzie Ladies League, are received by The SUN and TIMES Bowling Achievement Editor every day.

Interest in the bronze, silver and gold medals, which have been awarded by The SUN and TIMES to kieglers from Gary to Waukegan and from the lake-front to Peoria, is growing by bounds. Hundreds of bowlers rolling league games within the circulation area of the paper are qualifying each week.

Check Scores

All bowlers should check scores rolled since Dec. 1st, to see if they have qualified. League secretaries have Certification Forms which should be filled out, including your home address, and mailed to the Bowling Achievement Editor, The CHICAGO SUN and TIMES, 211 W Wacker Dr.

Jule Lellinger, Executive Director of the American Bowling Congress, Chicago District, has expressed his approval of the awards, saying he feels they have encouraged all bowlers to improve their scores. Lellinger recently received a bronze medal for his series in the Randolph league.

Latest Winners

Latest winner of the ladies' gold medal is Irene Engel of the North West Ladies Major. Rolling at Lawrence Western, her 652 series included games of 237, 213 and 202. In the same league, Mary Sims, 600 (206, 200, 194) earned a silver award, and Betty Wilson, 535 (180, 183, 172) has a bronze.

Kay Freitag of the Bowling Lanes Women's Classic has a bronze for her 659 (202, 199, 258), and Mickey Stachura, 623 (227, 172, 224); Irene Andrews, 555 (188, 193, 174); and Edna Mae Olson, 591 (231, 183, 177) have bronze medals in the same league.

Alexander wins $10,000 Tucson Open

Tucson, Ariz., Feb. 1 (AP)--By shooting the best round of golf in his career, Stewart (Skip) Alexander, Mid-Pines N.C., blazed past some of the biggest names in golf today to vault from a seventh place tie to win top money in the $10,000 Tucson Open.

In winning his first major tournament since turning pro four years ago, Alexander tied the 72-hole record of 264 for the course set by Jimmie Demaret of Ojai, Calif., in 1947. He also tied the 18-hole record of 62 set by Herman Keiser, Akron, Ohio, and established a new 9-hole record of 29, six under par for the out-ward in--

Bobby Locke, Johannesburg, South Africa, started out today with a one-stroke lead over Ed Furgol, Pontiac, Mich., and Jimmy Hines, Tucson, and an odds-on favorite to grab first prize money of $2,000.

Locke blew his last remaining chance to tie the slightly greying Alexander when he went two over par on the 392-yard 16th hole at a time when the pressure was greatest.

Finland surprises in Nordic combined

St. Mortiz, Feb. 1 (UP)-- Finland today fought to a startling victory in the Nordic combined, history's oldest skiing event, kicking Norway completely out of the first three places which have been exclusive Norwegian property in all previous winter Olympic games.

However, Norway managed to salvage some of the glory on this third day of the fifth winter games when Reidar Liakles barely streaked in ahead of a blinding snowstorm to win the 5,000 meter (3.11 miles) speed skating race and Teammate Odd Lundberg snared second place.

The U. S. hopes for its first gold medal of the competition were blasted when Gordon Wren of Winter Park, Colo., finished second in the special jumping event which was the second half of the Nordic combined. Although he had been granted an early unofficial lead, the official tabulation placed Wren second to Sweden's Sven Israelsson.

Engen tops U.S.

Engen was the top U.S. finisher in the combined, landing in 26th place with 346.8 points. Don Johnson of Salt Lake City was 27th with 345.1, Wren 29th with 340.2 and Ralph Townsend of Lebanon, N.H., 33rd with 326.7.

A light snow and a dusty wind whipped the skating rink for the 5,000-meter race which began shortly after dawn. But as the day progressed, the weather got worse and Liakles barely finished before a full-fledged snowstorm began lashing the area.

No one had a chance after Liakles finished, such was the ice. The skaters raced in pairs, with the best time winning. Liakles was clocked in 8 minutes 29.4 seconds. Lundberg was timed in 8:32.7, with Goethe Heglund of Sweden third with 8:34.8; Gustav Jansson of Sweden fourth with 8:34.9, Jan Langedijk of Holland fifth with 8:36.2 and Kees Broekman of Holland sixth with 8:37.3.

Blum's time best

Raymond Blum of Nutley, N.J., had the best American time. He was clocked in 8:54.4. Ken Henry of Chicago was 8:56 and Richard Solem of Chicago was 9:10.4.

The U.S. hockey team played the last period of a 31 to 1 rout over Italy as that blinding snowstorm whipped the outdoor rink, reducing visibility to zero.

"TACK" TOWNE'S PICKS

"Your best bet is Calumet," as the radio advertiser says--or could we be wrong? At any rate we pick the good Calumet filly JUSTA WHIRL to score in the fourth race at Hialeah today.

We also like the Calumet colt WHIRL BLAST in the fifth, APMED figures to make amends in the sixth, and RESPINGO looks like a good thing in the seventh. DISMAL KEY is good as any in the nightcap.

Full season scoring mark as Stags lose

By Milt Woodard

Joe Fuks broke the Stadium pro scoring record and the hearts of the Stags last night by pacing Philadelphia's Warriors to an 85-78 triumph and stuffing the Chicagoans into third place in the B.B.A.A.'s western race.

The fabulous Fuks scored 37 points on 14 field goals and nine free throws to crack the previous Stadium high, held jointly by himself and the Stags' Max Zaslofsky. His shooting, from near and far, was the big factor in handing Chicago its third straight setback, much to the dismay of the assembled 7,359.

The Stags even outshot the Warriors from the field, 28 to 27, but couldn't cope with the phenomenal success of Philadelphia on the foul line. The Warriors converted 31 out of 34 free throws.

With Fuks living up to all his mileage of press clippings, Philadelphia rolled to a 13-4 getaway and made it 19-14 at the end of the first quarter. The Warrior margin bloomed to 35-18 midway in the second, but the Stags managed to squeeze it down to 43-42 at half time.

Chicago kept applying the pressure to narrow Philadelphia's edge to 58-54 in the third period. A brace of late baskets, however, left the Warriors with an eight-point lead, 62-54, as play went into the final frame.

Two baskets in the last 35 seconds of play gave the Toledo Jeps a 49-45 call over Anderson, Ind., in the National League opener. Dick Mechen broke a 45-all deadlock with a lay-in shot, and George Sobek gave the Jeps their four-point edge with another short one as the final gun sounded.
